School Elimination Contests For Six Counties Here This Week

Schools Of Six Counties Share Contests Here

Two Thousand Student Musicians And Orators Will Compete

VISITORS COMING FRIDAY, SATURDAY

Mercer, Butler, Erie, Crawford, Venango And Lawrence Counties In Event

Schools of six Northwestern Pennsylvania counties — Lawrence, Mercer, Butler, Erie, Crawford and Venango—will be represented in the estimated host of 2,000 student musicians and student orators which will assemble in New Castle on Friday and Saturday, April 12 and 13, for the Northwestern Pennsylvania sectional elimination of the annual state-wide contest sponsored by the Pennsylvania Music and Forensic League.

From the atmosphere created by the stir over advance preparations however, it could be safely predicted that New Castle will maintain the high record as a contest city which she established when the sectional contestants gathered here several years ago.

On Friday and Saturday, various schools of the city and one church will be the scene of lively competition in six major forensic events and 45 different music eliminations.

Events At Many Schools

Schools in which the various events will take place will be Senior high, Ben Franklin junior high, Arthur McGill and the Highland U. P. church.

Supervising Principal H. M. B. Lehn of Grove City's schools will direct the two-day events in his capacity as chairman of the Northwestern Pennsylvania Forensic and Music League. Carrol D. Kearns, Greenville music supervisor, formerly of New Castle, is secretary of the league and Prof. Joseph F. Replogle, director of instrumental music in the New Castle schools, is treasurer.

Police investigators are delving into alleged secrets of Dr. H. E. Zimmerly's hospital farm at Mechanics Grove, Pa., in an effort to find some trace of Miss Gladys Lawson, inset, of Calvert, Md., who disappeared after the doctor assertedly performed an operation on the girl. Dr. Zimmerly, shown leaving a police car in Lancaster, Pa., following his arraignment, has been charged with performing an improper operation. Authorities are examining bones found in an ash heap near the farm to determine whether they are those of the missing woman.

Coroner's Jury Holds Accident, Fatal To Mrs. Julia Stewart, Was Preventable

INQUEST IS HELD IN EWING'S OFFICE

After hearing the evidence Monday afternoon relative to the collision in which Mrs. Julia Stewart of Shenango township received fatal injuries on March 8, a coroner's jury brought in a verdict in which they stated that the fatal crash could have been avoided by the exercise of proper precaution on the part of George Demenco, driver of the automobile which crashed into the machine driven by W. Clyde Smith, in which Mrs. Stewart was a passenger. The inquest was held in Alderman Ewing's office before Coroner Orville Potter.

Republican Bills Killed In House

Committee Kills Income Tax And Sales Tax Measures

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 9—Republican income and sales tax bills were killed today by the house Democratic ways and means committee.

The committee reported negatively on bills of Rep. Clinton A. Sowers, Philadelphia, for a flat tax on incomes, and Rep. James Rooney, Allegheny, for a three per cent sales tax. Sowers last night sought to force his bills from committee, but withdrew his motion when Rep. Frank W. Ruth, Berks, chairman, announced the committee would consider the measures today.

The Eroe bill imposing a tax on ten cents a ton on all coal, sand and gravel removed from streams was released from committee and will be on the calendar tomorrow. Also released was the Kane bill appropriating $10,000 for the house committee investigating transportation rates on anthracite coal.

Hunt For Body Of Woman Being Resumed Today

Officials Convinced That Ashes In Doctor's Backyard Are Those Of Animal

(International News Service)

LANCASTER, Pa., April 9.—Convinced that bones found in an ash heap at the home of Dr. H. E. Zimmerly were those of an animal, police today began a systematic search of the elderly physician's farm for the body of Mrs. Gladys Lawson, 29, believed to have died after undergoing an illegal operation.

Investigators theorized that the body was not dissected as testified by the physician's hired man, Richard Parker, held on a narcotic charge, but that it probably will be found buried in a field.

Held In Jail.

Dr. Zimmerly was held in jail in default of $10,000 bail on charges of performing illegal operations and possession of narcotics. State police stressed that even if the body was found the charge against Dr. Zimmerly would remain that of performing an illegal operation.

Other than admitting he performed an improper operation upon the missing woman, Dr. Zimmerly insisted he had driven her to Lancaster and did not know where she had gone.

Two Persons Return $146.30 Relief Funds

"Conscience Returns" Are Made To Lawrence County Relief Offices

Two "conscience returns" were made to the Lawrence county emergency relief administration today, totalling $146.30. The money represented relief checks which had been taken by the two people involved, but which they returned, feeling that they had taken money that they were not entitled to.

The first return was from a New Castle case. A man walked into the relief office and said: "I have been accepting relief which I can get along without. My conscience hurts me and I am returning $106.20." He turned it over in cash.

By a coincidence another man came in from Bessemer a little later and laid down $40.10 which he said he had received when he had means of his own. The money goes back into the general relief fund.

"These cases are people who have realized their error in accepting relief," said Mr. Moorhead. "There are other cases where people have accepted relief when they do not rate it. This is plain chiseling and we are doing everything we can to bring them to time."

Many Merchants Join Suburban Day Plans

New Castle's first Suburban Day, the first of a six monthly plan of bargain days will be held Wednesday, April 10, with over forty merchants of the city co-operating. Sponsored by the New Castle News the plan has met with the favor of the merchants and will undoubtedly meet with the approval of the thrifty buyers.

The plan of Suburban Day, is one easily understood. Each of the forty odd merchants who is co-operating in the movement will hold a Suburban Day sale on the second Wednesday of each month. On that day the merchant will offer his quality merchandise at reduced prices, these prices to be in effect for that day only.

Each store co-operating will be recognized by an official Suburban Day sign and the buyer may be sure that every store displaying the sign has genuine bargains to offer on Suburban Day.

There is no restriction upon the merchant's offerings for Suburban Day. He can and probably will offer low priced articles and his higher priced merchandise but all of them at especially reduced prices for the day.

Wednesday is the first of the Suburban Day. Shoppers will do well to get down early and see for themselves the worth while offerings that are being made by the merchants who are a part of Suburban Day.

VIOLENT STORMS STRIKE EAST AND WEST COASTS

(International News Service)

Death rode the whirlwind today as gales whipped coastal boundaries of the nation, sounding a bizarre note by the grounding of airplanes because of inland dust storms while men fought for their lives aboard a sinking ship in the icy Atlantic.

The new disasters struck on the heels of spring tornadoes which spiraled through the south over the week-end, with 29 persons believed to have perished and untold property damage inflicted in Louisiana and Mississippi.

Nature's latest freak attack hit western and eastern seaboards alike. From the lush Sacramento valley in California came reports of a death toll ranging from 9 to 14 persons when a Southern Pacific freight train collided with a motor-railway car of a second gang which had been repairing damage caused by the worst California storm in years. Eight other persons were known to be dead in swollen rivers and traf-

State Senate Tax Program Being Shaped

Republican Majority Appears To Be Formulating Tax Deadlock Suggestion

SENATORS DISCUSS SUBSTITUTE PLAN

Over Week-End Conference On Compromise With Governor Is Likely

By G. EVERETT DOYING
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, April 9.—The Republican senate majority today appeared to be swinging behind an alternative program of increased budget estimates of state income and sharply curtailed relief expenditures as a solution to the deadlock over relief and taxes.

And in the meantime as the deadlock for discontinuance of federal allocations next week neared, an abortive Republican house minority plan designed to stave off the crisis until June 1 lay wrecked at the hands of the Democratic majority which declared the proposal unworkable.

A caucus of Republican senators was slated for today at which discussion of a substitute program for Gov. George H. Earle's $203,000,000 new taxation plan, bogged down in the upper chamber, where to be continued. No agreement was looked for today. Whether the unveiling will be tomorrow or next week was uncertain.

Senate Program To Be Known

One G. O. P. spokesman, however, ventures the prediction that the senate program would be known before the legislature quits for the week. This procedure, he intimated, would pave the way for compromise conferences with the administration over the week-end. Governor Earle standing pat on his taxation bills, has declared he cannot sit down with senate leaders until two divergent programs are up for discussion.

The tip off on the G. O. P. senate's attitude came in Senator G Mason Owlett's reply from the floor to Governor Earle's radio castigation of the upper chamber for failure to pass administration tax bills

Owlett quoted state treasurer Charles A. Waters' statement that "the estimate of income as contained in the budget now before the legislature to be realized from existing taxes is $20,000,000 below what may

Damage In Central California Is Reported As Appalling

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—Heavy loss of life and millions of dollars in property damage lay today in the wake of the worst California storm in recent years.

Nine men in a Southern Pacific section crew were killed when their motor railway car crashed head-on with a gravel train. Three others in the crew were injured and another was reported dying.

The crew had been repairing a section of roadbed between Roseville and Marysville which had been washed out by the storm.

The terrific force of the collision splintered the light work car and catapaulted the men into a six-foot ravine where their mangled bodies were found.

Eight Others Dead

Eight other persons were definitely known to have lost their lives in swollen rivers and traffic accidents throughout the state. Another possible victim, Judge Gus Schuler, of Woodland, was missing. It was

Tornado Death Toll Reaches 31

Work Of Relief In Louisiana And Mississippi Is Being Pushed

(International News Service)

NATCHEZ, Miss., April 9.—The known death toll from a tornado which late Saturday and early Sunday lashed its way across a small portion of Louisiana and southwest Mississippi, today stood at 31 after two more victims of the storm had succumbed to their injuries.

Meanwhile the work of rehabilitation was being rushed. At Gloster, where Red Cross headquarters have been set up, nearly 500 refugees from the Gloster and Gillsburg sections are being fed and housed. Most of the homeless are being cared for in public buildings, while members of a nearby CCC camp aid in the reconstruction of their homes.

The Mississippi river today had given up the bodies of five of the nine persons drowned when the tornado overturned a large house boat six miles south of Lake Providence, La. The five bodies recovered were all negroes. Search for the bodies of the four white persons was being continued.

NEW YORK TIMES OWNER DEAD

Adolph S. Ochs Stricken At 77

Death Occurs While He Is On Visit To Original Home City, Chattanooga

FUNERAL SERVICE TO OCCUR WEDNESDAY

(International News Service)

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., April 9—Chattanooga bowed in mourning today for one of its most illustrious sons, Adolph S. Ochs, owner and publisher of the New York Times.

Death closed his career here yesterday at the scene of Mr. Ochs' first success in journalism.

The 77-year-old publisher died at Newell sanitarium after suffering a cerebral hemorrhage while at luncheon in a restaurant across the street from the Chattanooga Times, his first venture as a publisher.

Today the body was to lie in state at the Julius and Bertha Ochs Memorial Temple, a monument erected in memory of his parents.

Funeral Wednesday.

Funeral services will be held in the stately temple tomorrow, with Rabbi Abraham Feinstein and the Rev. Dr. T. S. McCallie, pastor of the Central Presbyterian church, officiating.

Following the services here Mr. Ochs' body will be taken to New York for services at Temple Emanuel Friday.

Mr. Ochs, whose career began 57 years ago as a "printer's devil", had come here from New York to visit with relatives. Shortly before he was stricken he had visited with former associates here on the staff of The Times, the newspaper he had built up only to leave 39 years ago to repeat his success in the New York field.

A nurse was with the publisher when he sat down to lunch with his nephew, Adolph Shelby Ochs II, Col. Milton B. Ochs, his brother, and Harry C. Adler, a brother-in-law.

Death Is Sudden.

Suddenly the others were aware that Mr. Ochs had suffered a stroke that had rendered him unconscious. An ambulance carried him to the sanitarium where he died a short while later without regaining consciousness. At the bedside also was Miss Marion Sulzberger, a granddaughter, who had accompanied the publisher here from New York Sunday night.

Mr. Ochs was known to have been in poor health for nearly three years. A nurse had accompanied him in later months.

From all parts of the world today came messages of sorrow at the passing of the New York publisher.

Mr. Ochs played an important part in the development of Chattanooga, his home from 1877 until 1896.

Besides the beautiful memorial to his parents he had provided the funds necessary for the establishment of a park on historical Lookout mountain that has preserved the natural beauty of the landmark.

crashed into a stalled automobile at Wilson, N. C. apparently an accidental accident, but one which nevertheless is being investigated by the secret service.

Family At Station

Among the first to greet the president were his wife and daughter, Mrs. Anna Boettinger, his mother, Mrs. James Roosevelt, also was at station.

The 800 policemen were stationed at the station and the Protestant Episcopal church of the Incarceration at Madison Ave. and 57th St., where the funeral rites were held.

Among the detectives were 20 from the criminal alien bureau. The church was guarded by 445 police in all, the station by 247 and there was a motorcycle escort of 20. Policemen were even stationed on the roofs of buildings around the station.

Because of the train's delay, it was decided the presidental party would proceed immediately to the church. Earlier plans had called for a stop at the Roosevelt town house.

Hits Stalled Auto

Aboard President Roosevelt's Special Train, Enroute to New York, April 9—President Roosevelt's special train demolished a stalled automobile on the track at Wilson, N. C., shortly after ten thirty o'clock last night. The occupants of the car escaped.

How the car happened to be on the track was a mystery until local police reported to secret service men, who leaped from the presidential train, that they believed the automobile had been stolen. Bystanders reported that two negroes fled just before the train hit the auto. The pilot engine preceding the president's train, had just passed. The accident climaxed a series of adventures undergone by the president.

Leaves For Washington.

New York, Aprl 9.—Under close guard of police and secret service agents, President Roosevelt left for Washington at 11:40 a. m. today after attending funeral services here for Warden Delano Robbins, late U. S. minister to Canada, his cousin and close friend.

Several thousand persons gathered at the railroad station to see the executive depart for the capital. They got only a glimpse of him, however, so strong was the police escort.

Delaware Judge May Give Mrs. May H. Carey And Oldest Son Death Penalties

ONE OTHER SON ALSO CONVICTED

(International News Service)

GEORGETOWN, Del., April 9.—Hoping the death penalty will not be imposed, Mrs. May H. Carey, 52, and her 27-year-old son, Howard, awaited sentencing today following their conviction of first degree murder in the death of the woman's brother, Robert R. Hitchens, 55, garage mechanic.

Mrs. Carey and her son were found guilty of the eight-year-old murder by a jury shortly before midnight. Another son, James, 23, was convicted of second degree murder.

The jury recommended mercy in the case of Mrs. Carey and her oldest son, but under Delaware law this recommendation is not mandatory and the judge may choose between the death penalty or life imprisonment. The maximum penalty for second degree murder is life imprisonment.

Beaten And Shot

Hitchens was found beaten and shot to death on November 7, 1927, in his home at Omar, several miles from here.

His death remained unsolved unsolved until last December when another son of Mrs. Carey, 21-year-old Lawrence, was arrested on a burglary charge and suddenly confessed knowledge of the crime. Lawrence was the state's principal witness at the trial, testifying that the night before his uncle's body was found his mother and two older brothers went to Hitchens' home armed with a pistol, a sledge hammer and a club.

Motive for the murder, the state contended, was a $2,000 insurance policy Mrs. Carey held on her brother's life.

STATE SENATE TAX PROGRAM BEING SHAPED

reasonably be expected in the next two years from these sources." The Tioga senator continued:

"We note that the governor estimates revenue from present tax laws and other sources for the 1935-37 biennium in the amount of $128,388,995. The 1933-35 estimate on those same sources amounted to $153,795,672. The actual collections to March 30, 1935, from these existing sources have been $140,250,000.

"With the spending of nearly $5,000,000,000 by the federal government in project we must certainly conclude that revenues during the two years ahead will be at least as great as during the two years just past."

Curtail Relief Allocations

The other portion of the developing substitute program, curtailment of relief allocations, has been foreshadowed for some time by repeated G. O. P. attacks from the senate floor on the cost of aid to the jobless. How much of a slash will be inflicted upon Governor Earle's request for $120,000,000 for relief remains to be seen.

With income and outgo contracted considerably more than outlined in the Earle budget, the senate then will be in a position to choose the taxes which will fill up the gap. Indications were that some of the administration's taxes will be accepted. These probably will not meet the entire deficit and a sales tax may be suggested for that purpose.

The Republican house plan, drafted and sponsored independently of the senate's conferences, contemplated a third series of transfers of money from special state funds to provide $7,500,000 as the state's share of relief until the end of the biennium.

Democrats termed the scheme "political," they asserted the federal government, in its ultimatum to cut off allocations to the state unless Pennsylvania acted to pay part of the bill, did not mean the $5,000,000 monthly requirement must be on hand in cash by April 15 but that legislative action to provide a share should be taken. The transferred money would have come from the liquor fuels tax fund, liquor license fund, liquor stores funds, motor fund and from unspent balances of the $50,000,000 soldiers' bonus bond issues. The bills were buried in committee.

The last two Earle tax bills, the gift levy and the impost of the mileage traveled in Pennsylvania by out-of-state trucks, both went back to committee in the house, the former for amendment, the latter for a hearing. This fate also was administered to the administration graded income tax for schools which is due for a further hiking of the tax on higher income brackets.

petition is Mr. Replogle, who for weeks has been mapping his plans and sketching important programs for the contestants who will compete.

While Oil City's schools are a member of the northwestern Pennsylvania league, those schools are not likely to be entered in events here inasmuch as Oil City plays the role of host city to the state-wide contest of the league on April 26 and 27. Her schools will enter events there.

Judges Already Chosen

Eight renowned judges who will officiate at the music contests and four outstanding forensic meet judges have been chosen for the two-day contests, Mr. Replogle announced. They will come from cities all over this district.

Opening at 9 o'clock on Friday morning, the events will continue through until Friday evening and into Saturday. Most of the competition will be over by noon on Saturday.

Forensic events will take place on Friday night in the Senior high auditorium.

A corps of city school teachers has been enlisted to act in chairmanship capacities at the various schools where the contests will occur, it is said. They will preside and introduce the contestants. Principals are also assisting.

THIS POOR PAINTER IN VERY HARD LUCK

(International News Service)

DANVILLE, Pa., April 9.—Punsters note! It's the absent-minded house painter now.

A painter here clinched a deal with a landlord to paint a house. After finishing the job, the painter went to collect. The owner, deciding to view the work before paying, found that the wrong house had been painted.

Non-plussed, the brush wielder went to the owner of the property where he had worked. He was rewarded with—a threat of arrest for trespassing.

PRESIDENT WILL ALLOCATE FUNDS FOR WORK-RELIEF

tion which he approved yesterday shortly after leaving Jacksonville. In approving this bill, President Roosevelt authorized the following statement:

"The joint resolution making appropriations for relief purposes was finally passed last Friday. On Saturday and Sunday the resolution, including all the amendments finally agreed on was examined by the departments and agencies concerned and was sent to Jacksonville by plane and received by the president at 1 p. m.

"While a number of new questions are presented by recent amendments those who have studied the joint resolution have recommended its approval and the president has affixed his signature to it at 4 p. m.

Two Allocations

"Immediateley thereafter the president signed two allocations from the amount appropriated under the new law. The first allocated one hundred and twenty-five million dollars to the administrator of the federal emergency relief administration in order that relief may not stop.

"It should be noted that the long delay in the senate has made necessary the transfer of many million of dollars previously allocated to highly useful, permanent projects to immediate emergency relief work. This money came from the recovery act appropriation of 1933.

"Many of the projects which have been cancelled because of this cannot now be continued under terms of the new law.

"The second allocation under the new law for thirty million dollars is a continuation of the emergency conservation work, in other words, the maintenance of the civilian conservation corps camps; also eight hundred and forty-two thousand dollars for continuation of conservation and other work on tribal or other Indian reservation lands. Further announcements in regard to allocations will be made from time to time."

HEAVY LOSS OF LIFE IN STORM IN CALIFORNIA

feared he drowned when a boat overturned at Sacramento.

After raging two days, the storm apparently had abated in Northern California and was moving eastward over Nevada.

Damage in Central California was appalling. Miles of property was under two and three feet of water. Orchards, still in bloom suffered heavily. Scores were driven from their homes, and livestock marooned.

Numerous thrilling rescues were reported. Fifteen transients were saved from shed roofs when ten feet of water flooded the Sacramento river district "jungles."

Track Washed Out

A mile of track near Marysville on the Southern Pacific railroad was washed out. It was this section workers were repairing when their truck crashed head-on into a gravel train.

While the storm damage was estimated in the millions of dollars, Major E. H. Bowie, district federal weather forecaster here, said the record-breaking rains will ultimately be of inestimable value.

Three dead was the storm toll in Southern California.

Several small fishing craft were smashed on the rocky coast when they slipped their moorings. Larger vessels were endangered as the gales whipped the seas to mountainous size.

Bad Tidings From East.

These reports of death and destruction were met almost instantly by similar bad tidings from the east.

Today the S. S. Badagry, British steamer, reported herself in distress off the coast of Newfoundland. The hold of the stricken vessel was filling rapidly.

While icy gales and mountainous seas ripped against eastern breakwaters, dust storms hovered over the western plains, with a pall of fine dust floating over New Mexico, Colorado, Wyoming and parts of Nebraska. The propelling winds, however, were zephyr-like compared to the winds which had swept the acrid dust across the west and midwest recently.

GOLDEN WEDDING IS NOTABLE OCCASION

Observance of the fiftieth anniversary Monday of their wedding on April 6, 1885, in this city, was a most happy occasion for Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Melvin, of 1304 East Washington street.

All day long, relatives and friends dropped in casually, to extend congratulations and good wishes to the happy couple, the day being delightfully informal as no particular celebration had been planned, owing to the fact that Mrs. Melvin has not been in the best of health for the past several years. Lovely gifts of flowers, cards, and of a miscellaneous nature were received.

Refreshments were served from the dining room table, adorned with a springtime bouquet of cut flowers and a wedding cake in gold and white tones, which was the gift of the six grandchildren. Among those present were the couple's one daughter, Mrs. Raymond Platt and Mr. Platt, from Salem, O.; their daughter, Mrs. Donald McGoun and Mr. McGoun, of Sharon; the three sons, Russell C., John E., and Paul H. Melvin, and their families, all of New Castle; and Mrs. A. J. Francis, of San Diego, Cal., who is a sister of Mr. Melvin.

Mrs. Melvin's maiden name was Anna T. Lutz. After the wedding ceremony which was performed in the First Presbyterian church in this city, a half century ago, the bride and groom took up their residence here, and with the exception of a few years spent away from this locality, they have lived in New Castle practically all their lives. Mrs. Melvin is nearing her 70th birthday and Mr. Melvin is 76. He is a retired mill man, having been prominently identified with the Carnegie Steel and Standard Steel Car companies for many years.

TEA EVENT FRIDAY AT FIRST U. P. CHURCH

Prominently listed among social events for the current week is the Adverse-I-Tea which will be sponsored Friday evening, by the P. E. O. Sisterhood in the First U. P. church on Clenmore boulevard.

The original name typifies the program which will be featured by a resume by Carrie Jeffery Roberts, of the much discussed book, Anthony Adverse. The affair is of a benefit nature, in the interests of the organization's scholarship fund. In recent years, the P. E. O. Sisterhood, through this fund, has enabled a number of New Castle girls to attend colleges who otherwise would have not been so privileged. No admission will be charged, but a silver offering will be lifted.

TALK ON FLORIDA FEATURES MEETING

Mrs. C. J. Baker opened her home at 1112 South Mill street, Monday afternoon, to members of the Current Events of '23 club for their regular meeting. President, Mrs. Stewart Thompson, presided. The reading of the club collect and roll call response being given with "Current Events" opened activities.

After hearing various reports of committees, the program period was turned over to Mrs. Harry Marshall, Sr., who told in an interesting talk, of her travels in the south during the past three months, where she recently returned from. She gave an illustrated description of Florida, and every resort in the state which she visited while sojourning in that vicinity.

On April 29, Mrs. W. H. Shipler of Highland avenue, will receive the women, at which time election of officers will take place.

ANNIVERSARY EVENT PROVES DELIGHTFUL

On Monday evening at 6:30 o'clock the Alma Brodhead Circle entertained about 45 women at its Thirty-third Anniversary Dinner in the dining room of the First Baptist church —an event that turned out to be one of the most outstanding of the spring church activities.

Many of those present were not members of the present Alma Broadhead Circle but had been members of the original Farther Lights society or the World Wide Guild as it was later known.

The tables presented a pretty picture with low bowls of spring flowers, each place marked with a souvenir program and a clever favor representing a tiny potted plant, tulips, iris and daffodils.

Mrs. C. H. Heaton gave the invocation, followed by pep singing and the serving of the delicious dinner. The guests later assembled in the Sunday school room for the program, which was presented as follows:

"The Highways of Life"—Mrs. Florence Reese.

Two readings, "Steze on the Telephone" and "Silver Roads"—Patricia Blaine.

Play, "Unto the Least of These"—Cast, Frances Rogers, Katherine Fombelle, Mae Cromie, Pearl Hockenberry, Edith Cleaveland and Mary Brown, directed by Mrs. Mary Landis.

Greetings from former members in other cities—Read by Mrs. Jane Pattison.

Among the special guests of the evening were three of eight charter members of the society, Miss Alma Broadhead, Mrs. Clara Griffith Remley and Bertha Welsh Griffiths. One of the letters read was from Mrs. Ella Gaston Springer of Ambridge, Pa.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Fay Jefferson McConnell of Toronto, O., Mrs. Ella McMillin Kirk of Volant, Mrs. Robert Barnes of Pittsburgh and Miss Helen Lewis of Youngstown, O.

At the conclusion of the program Mrs. Heaton presented Miss Alma Broadhead with a lovely bouquet of cut flowers in recognition of her work in the organization of the society. A friendship circle was formed and the group sang the Doxology.

Much of the success of the evening goes to the efforts made by Miss Charlotte Emery, president of the society; Miss Florence Davis, general chairman of the committees, who were assisted by the following groups: Dinner, Mrs. Dorothy Williamson, Mrs. Stella McKibben, Mrs. Mary Freed and Mrs. Ethel Haymond; decorations, Misses Genevieve Schugars, Verlee Armstrong and Mrs. Ruth Bannon; program, Mrs. Florence Reese, Mrs. Mary Landis, Mrs. William Cook; invitations, Mrs. Jane Pattison, Mrs. Hazel Pattison, Miss Lila Strayer; and the pianist, Mrs. Ezna Brenner.

Miss Schiffman Honored

Honoring Miss Claire Schiffman of Phillips street, who was severely injured in an automobile accident near Ellwood City several weeks ago and who is just now able to sit up a few hours each day, the Young Menorah Club girls went to her home Sunday evening and tendered her a surprise on her birthday.

The girls presented her with a lovely gift expressive of best wishes for an early and complete recovery, and before departing they enjoyed a lunch of light refreshments which they had provided.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Elizabeth Miller, of New York City, to Donald Schrumm, of Sharpsville, Pa., to terminate in an early May marriage.

COPELANDS HONORED AT THIRD U. P. PARTY

Among the many lovely farewell parties that have been held in the honor of Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Copeland was the one Monday evening given by the S. B. Copeland Bible class, taught by Bernard Hook, and the Queen Esther class taught by Mrs. Bernard Hook, in the church dining room of the Third U. P. church, of which Dr. Copeland is the former pastor.

During the evening an interesting program was carried out as follows: Pep singing, led by Willard McCown; play, entitled "School Days", directed by Mrs. Charles McDermott with the following members taking part: Mrs. Wilbur McKibben, Mrs. Dave Jones, Mrs. Emerson Flansburg, Mrs. Lloyd Keely, Mrs. Dave Lewis, Mrs. William McBride, Mrs. Fred Thompson, Mrs. Ed O'Neil, Miss Rose Sacripent, Miss Dorothy Kay, Miss Mabel Kocher, Mrs. Clarence Love, Mrs. Floyd Kelley and Mrs. John Kenehan; reading, by Marietta Daugherty; vocal selection, by Elmer Taylor; reading, little Donna Jean Jenkins; The Broken Link, by Bernard Hook; greetings to S. B. Copeland class and the Copelands, by Mrs. Bernard Hook; greetings to Queen Esther class, by Dr. Copeland; accordion selection, by Mrs. Gomer Emery; sextet, Bill McKibben, Dave Jones, Willard McCown, Bill McBride, Thomas Baskeyfield and Elmer Taylor.

Brief remarks were heard from Miss Pearl Colnot, president of the Queen Esther class; C. C. McKibben and D. E. Zimmerman.

At the close of the program John Kenehan, president of the S. B. Copeland Bible class, presented Dr. and Mrs. Copeland (she being absent on account of ill health) with a beautiful occasional chair and lamp, in behalf of the two classes. Dr. Copeland responded in his gracious manner.

Special guests at this occasion were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. McKibben, the former being superintendent of the Sunday school, and D. E. Zimmerman of the Pittsburgh Theological seminary.

Dr. Copeland is the former teacher of this new men's Bible class, although he just organized it a month before his resignation, but he will be greatly missed by the members of the class, whose best wishes go with him in his new field.

To close this party a delicious buffet lunch was served to about 50 members and guests at long tables attractively decorated in purple and yellow, with Dutch Quehl, Ed. O'Neil and Dave Jones acting as "chefs".

Much credit is due the executive committee of the two classes for the success of the evening.

RECENT BRIDES HONORED BY CLASS

The Workers-Together Class of Croton Avenue M. E. Sunday school taught by Mrs. Charles E. Allen, had a "kid party" in the home of Mrs. Dorothy Shetrom, of Croton avenue, Monday evening.

Three brides of recent dates, all members of the class, were honor guests and were given a kitchen shower. They were Mrs. Joe Waggoner, nee Jemima Shuler: Mrs. John White, nee Elma Jones, and Mrs. George McCracken, nee Alma Smith.

Pauline Ehart and Sara Sheehy were voted the cleverest dressed "kids." A program of children's games created much merriment. A candy hunt was won by Beryl Emery, and a peanut scramble by Lily Belle Hill.

The committee assisting Mrs. Shetrom was composed of Elma Wright, Elizabeth Reynolds, and Pauline Ehart. A buffet lunch was served by the committee.

Nameless Bridge

Members of the Nameless Bridge club were delightfully entertained in the home of Mrs. Hubert Sadler, of East Washington street, Monday evening.

Two tables of contract were in play, using the new scoring system, the high score award going to Miss Eloise Cole. Spring floral tones were used in the tallies and score pads.

Later in the evening, the club members were invited to the dining room, where a most attractive table had been arranged, with a large Easter basket gracing the center, flanked by tall yellow tapers. Mrs. Sadler was assisted in serving by Miss Wanda White.

The next gathering will be with Miss Eloise Cole, of Euclid avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Kooser, of Connellsville, Pa., and formerly of New Castle for a number of years, will celebrate fifty years of wedded life at their home, 107 Gallatin avenue, Connellsville, Friday, April 12.

The Koosers, who resided on East Washington street when here, were faithful members of the First M. E. church and have a host of friends who join in wishing them congratulations. Miss Mary Pearson, of the Castleton, and Mrs. John Elder, of East Falls street, returned Sunday evening from Aiken, S. C., and other neighboring points of interest. Miss Jennie Morgan, of Grant street, returned earlier from Aiken after going down with Miss Pearson.

Mrs. J. D. F. Newell and daughter, Mrs. Earl McComas, who have also been in Aiken, have returned to their Washington, D. C. residence, and later will come to New Castle for the summer. While there, the Washington folks called on Mrs. J. H. Frew, who has been spending the winter in Aiken.

Among other recent travelers home are Mr. and Mrs. James T. Ray, of Wallace avenue, who spent several weeks at Miami Beach, Fla.

CURRENT EVENTS CLASS AT T. A. GILKEY HOME

Due to the inclement weather, Monday afternoon, there was only a small attendance at the meeting of Current Events class in the home of Mrs. T. A. Gilkey, Rhodes Place.

However, the gathering was all the more informal for that matter, and a most interesting discussion of current subjects was held. Plans were made for helping with the sewing at Jameson Memorial hospital again, on April 17.

In two weeks, the class will meet at the home of Mrs. Carmi Glover, on East Falls street.

P. 12 P. Club

A GESTURE OF GOOD WILL

THERE is no reason why the United States should not hold its naval maneuvers in the Pacific, where it has many interests, and no reason why Japan should object to the plan.

Naturally the administration has declined to cancel its program because of protests in this country against it. If dispatching a warship upon a visit of friendship to Yokohama will reassure those who fear unpleasant complications, it is worth while. This gesture of good will should also allay any apprehensions Japan may feel, though they seem superfluous.

Naval maneuvers have taken place hitherto in both the Pacific and the Atlantic without evoking the dread spectre of war. They play an important part in the work of preparedness. All nations engage in them from time to time without arousing ill feeling. The president has too keen an interest in the navy to make it likely that he would hamper its legitimate activities to quiet idle fears. Nevertheless his action in this case is to be commended in view of the protests he has received.

CAN THERE BE A "TYPICAL" MOTHER?

It is a beautiful tribute, this naming of "the typical American mother of 1935." One may wonder, however, in what respects the typical mother of 1935 differs from the typical mother of 1898 or of 1987. Are there epochal variations in the warmth of mother love, in the selfless devotion of motherhood?

To isolate a specific mother as transcendently exemplary may be like classifying a star, a flower, a summer sky as "typical." Deep in the heart of every man and every woman there is one, and only one, ideal of perfect motherhood. It is not subject to comparison. It is too personal and too elemental to be admitted to a category of type. So long as love and memory remain to guide mankind, designation as the "typical mother" will be a graceful, but empty, honor.

HONORS FOR A STORY TELLER

Colonel John Buchan, a member of parliament for the Scottish universities, has been appointed governor general of Canada and the news is both interesting and important. We are not familiar with Colonel Buchan's talents for statesmanship but we feel safe in assuming on the basis of his known abilities in the field of literature that his qualifications are diversified and notable.

Between sessions of parliament and when not occupied with the responsibilities of his constituency, Colonel Buchan writes stories of mystery and adventure. Those who have read "Mr. Standfast," "The Thirty-Nine Steps" and "Greenmantle" will testify that he spins a captivating yarn. And this in itself, in our opinion, is sufficient reason why the king should honor him with the office of governor general of Canada.

CARVING THE FOUR BILLIONS

With the big work relief program assured, where and how will the money be spent?

Undue attention, perhaps, has been drawn to some of the more spectacular parts of the program, especially the reclamation plans. Great dams, reservoirs, power plants, rural electrification, reforestation, restoration of depleted soil, safeguards against erosion, vast windbreaks, and so on—these have a compelling interest for Americans who have not lost their pioneering spirit and imagination.

But more prosaic things will absorb most of the relief money and work. The relief, generally speaking, has to go where the sufferers are. Nearly half of them are factory workers in the cities. Then come people in the domestic and personal service trades, likewise city folk. It is estimated, therefore, that considerably more than half of the expenditure must be in the cities or near them.

NATURE HAS THE LAST WORD

The AAA has had another change of heart. In the most sweeping modification made thus far in its original program, Secretary of Agriculture Wallace has removed restrictions on the planting of spring wheat.

The explanation for the modified order is that there is a renewed threat of drought in the grain areas of the Middle West. Another curtailed wheat crop, such as was the case last year, would have the United States importing wheat before the close of the present year.

This new order canceling restrictions on spring wheat planting can scarcely add more than 25,000,000 bushels to the nation's wheat crop. This will be but a drop in the bin if we experience another summer like that of 1934.

Thus we are learning, by the painful method of trial and error, that it is scarcely the part of wisdom to do much governmental meddling with the bounty of nature. Weather conditions can knock the best-laid plans of men into a cocked hat. If we deliberately curtail crops when nature smiles, we may find our stomachs more or less empty when she frowns.

Manners are funny. The man who takes your home or your job won't take your last cigaret.

Now that someone has found out that civilization started 70 centuries ago let him tell us how far it has gone.

Thirty thousand persons were killed in the United States last year by automobiles and the country accepts the news complacently.

Now, if there were only 19 men in the world who thought they knew all about money, this would be a much happier place in which to live.

An impression gained from reading the papers during the past week is that Mr. Baruch has been asked for his opinion on everything from soy beans to anti-aircraft artillery.

The World War 20 Years Ago

By Clark Kinnaird, Author Of Today Is The Day

April 8, 1915—Russian general headquarters announced the capture of key positions on a 75-mile front in the Carpathians.

The surrender of Austria's greatest fortress in Poland, Przemysl, had been Grand Duke Nicholas' signal for a rigorous offensive along the Dukla-Turka line, where he had concentrated a powerful army whose objective was to secure possession of the central passes, and then descend into the Hungarian plain. The Russian right wing, advancing more rapidly than the center and the left, pushed the Austrians back through the Dukla Pass and reached the valley of the Ordava. Further east, the Russians had fought their way slowly to the Rustoki Pass. Now they stood at the threshold of Hungary.

In Vienna and Berlin, as reports trickled in, it was obvious that the battle in the Carpathians marked a crucial point in Teutonic fortunes. The capture of Przemysl, the attack at the Dardanelles, the momentary successful British drive at Neuve Chapelle—the cumulative effect of these was immediately apparent in the very capitals the Central Powers were seeking most to impress, Rome, Bucharest, Sofia, and had the gravest political consequences.

Vienna and Berlin tried to be reassuring, they tried to gloss over the facts. A total of 33,000 Austrians had been captured in the previous week. The Austrian war office announced that the Russian attacks had been repulsed and that during March Austrian troops captured 39,200 Russians. But there was no way it could suppress the stories from the lost Przemysl, where the garrison and civilian population had lived through a siege hardly paralleled in modern history. All the horses, dogs and cats in the city had been eaten as food. Civilians had been suggestively told by military authorities that the backbone and the tail were the only poisonous parts of rats, to be cut out before cooking the rest of the creatures, so that many persons had been living on rats' meat.

Biggest cause of suffering in Przemysl, and of the failure of the Austrian forces in the Carpathian campaign, was government incompetence and criminal fraud. Przemysl, backbone of Austrian defense in Poland, had been inadequately provisioned and ill-equipped. War contractors delivered shoes with paper soles. In late February 40 per cent of the Austrian army had been made ineffective by sickness resulting from exposure of their bare feet to the cold, for the paper soles had come to pieces.

BILLINGSGATE

At Billingsgate fishwomen sat beside their stalls all day
And spent their time in thinking up new filthy words to say.
They cursed each other night and day.
These ugly crones and vile
Thought calling names was argument so each one learned a style
Of malediction that would burn a rival to a crisp
And children in their cradles were taught blasphemy to lisp.

Who walked the streets of London and went down through Billingsgate
Heard the men folk and the women folk in many a hot debate.
They had no wit for logic and unhampered by the facts
They fought with words and phrases never found in printed tracts.
For the one who cursed the loudest with the vilest things to say
Was the champion of the fish stalls till a viler came that way.

Ned Ward, who wrote of London on his book was moved to state
What was worst in human manners was the best at Billingsgate.
Vicious tongues were busy wagging, spilling epithets about.
Life was just an endless struggle to see who could loudest shout.
And from early seventeen hundred to the present, in debate
The use of coarse invectives has been known as Billingsgate."

The World At A Glance

Trade Future Obscured. Lack Of Decision Harms. Labor's Status Doubtful.

Central Press
New York Bureau
235 East 45th street
By LESLIE EICHEL
Central Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, April 9.—Analysists of trade, trying to determine the trend of the Roosevelt administration, are "confusion worse confounded".

Trade is in the position of a patient who has been opened up by a surgeon. But now the surgeon cannot decide whether to go ahead or to sew up the wound.

If the patient requires an operation, he would be better off with it. If he does not, the wound should be sewed up.

Instead, the Roosevelt administration evidently has decided to smooth things over, with anesthetics.

That view seems to be the only thing upon which both capital and labor agree, for both are vitally affected by indecision.

Much has been blamed on congress. The house of representatives, in the hands of unashamed, unabashed reactionaries, has ripped New Deal bills to pieces— in fact, virtually has made fascistic bills out of them. The senate, on the other hand, has been an operating room with all the surgeons disagreeing on how to proceed with the operation.

But the matter simmers down to this:

The chief surgeon seems to be feeling his way. Thus, congress fumbles along.

The patient survives by means of billions of anesthetics.

AN EXAMPLE

Take for example, the matter of collective bargaining.

The Roosevelt administration tries at every opportunity to evade the question.

There are all sorts of devices to prevent a direct diagnosis on that.

In the meantime, the patient cries in pain.

All this is brought to mind by the statement of a U. S. government conciliator, sent to Akron, O., to try to bring rubber companies and workers together. Said he:

"There's nothing any government agency can do now to avert a strike. I hope a strike will soften both factions."

But what is the reason there is nothing any government agency can do? Because the Roosevelt administration has had no clear cut law passed on collective bargaining and labor disputes by which the government can effect a settlement without strife and disruption.

The conciliator is correct. He has no power that would stand up in courts.

One of the rubber companies realized that in obtaining a temporary restraining order in the District of Columbia to prevent the National Labor Relations board and the NRA from enforcing a NRLB decision. The order, granted by the court, also restrained removal of the Blue Eagle and any declaration that the company was in violation of Section 7-A—that ambiguous clause which is supposed to define collective bargaining.

No soothing tonic settles such a sharp issue as that.

The World AND THE Mud Puddles

HE KNEW

An Englishman sitting outside a cafe in a Continental City, remarked casually to a companion: "In my opinion, the Emperor is a hopeless idiot."

There happened to be within hearing distance a native detective, who immediately addressed the Englishman thus: "Sir, I arrest you for lese majeste. You said the Emperor is a hopeless idiot.

"My dear fellow," said the Englishman, "I didn't mean your emperor. There are other emperors in the world, surely.'

"That may be" replied the detective 'but ours is the only one who is a hopeless idiot."

HUSBANDS FORBIDDEN TO ENTERTAIN AT HOME WILL DO SO ELSEWHERE.

Some married men seek amusement and entertainment outside their homes because their wives object so strongly to home entertaining.

Cliques of men usually have some favorite program when they meet.

If they cannot be afforded something along the line of their desires they are displeased with what the host offers in its place.

At least they are not as pleased as a host would desire.

Every man entertained wants to return in kind, if he can.

If he can't do it in his home, he will take his friends where they may feel at ease and have the sort of program they like.

This adds to the cost of entertainment and in most instances is not as satisfactory as it would be in the home.

It is to be expected that a crowd of men engaged in card playing or in other forms of recreation will drop ashes on the rugs and otherwise disturb the immaculate appearance of the rooms.

The house may need a good airing after such a gathering, but what of it?

This should be expected, and there would be no complaints.

When complaints are heard, the husband seeks entertainment elsewhere.

Westminster Man Speaks To Rotary

Prof. McKee Analyzes Wheeler-Rayburn Bill At Luncheon Monday

CITES QUESTION OF CONSTITUTIONALITY

If the Wheeler-Rayburn utility regulating bill, now in the national spotlight at Washington is enacted into law by Congress "all utilities—the good and the bad—will get a spanking for the wrongs of a few," Prof. C. W. McKee, head of the economics department at Westminster College, told the Rotary Club at its luncheon on Monday.

In his scholarly 15-minute prepared address and the 15-minute question-and-answer period that followed the Rotarians learned considerable of detail provisions carried by the bill which will directly regulate holding companies in various public utility fields.

That a question of the bill's unconstitutionality lurks in the minds of many of the nation's legal experts was shown by Mr. MeKee, when he cited two points upon which may be found grounds for the defeat of the bill in the courts.

"First," the college speaker explained, "is the bill's attempt to regulate largely by taxation and second is because of its usurpation of regulation authority which rests now with the utility commissions of different states."

McKee declared "some protests," have already been raised against the bill by some state commissions.

Under the Wheeler-Rayburn bill, four commissions, the Federal Power commission, the Federal Trade commission, the Federal Securities and Exchange commission and the various state commissions will be given authority to regulate.

"This unwieldy mechanism," the clubmen were told by the Westminster man, "is one of the bill's worst features."

Speaking informally to the club, Mr. McKee spent considerable time answering questions. He enlightened the members on the various clauses of the bill.

One point he made clear and that is that, under the bill, all holding companies must be liquidated by 1940.

He lauded many of the largest holding companies and asserted that all "should not be made to take the same medicine because of the condition of some."

Speaking after his Rotary talk, Prof. McKee firmly declared that "I'll be opposed to this bill until we first give the present regulating commissions a chance to correct the evils. And after all, not all the companies have been guilty of wrong-doing."

Mr. McKee was introduced by Rotarian J. Lee McFate.

Featuring the day's business meeting was the nomination of club officers for the 1935-36 term. A general election will occur later.

FOOLED JUSTICE BUT FINALLY IS CAUGHT

(International News Service)

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., April 9.—A year ago, Balford J. Gessner, then a property owner of Berwick, was fined $15 and costs by a justice of the peace there for cruelty to animals. The official gave him 15 days' time in which to pay the fine.

Gessner promptly forgot the penalty, sold his home and moved to Wilkes-Barre before the time of grace expired.

While driving through Berwick recently, he ran out of gas. Going to the nearest gasoline station, he was recognized by a constable who immediately took him into custody.

Gessner didn't get out of Berwick until he paid the long delinquent fine and costs.

SON GIVEN LITTLE OF $200,000 ESTATE

(International News Service)

UPPER DARBY, Pa., April 9.—R. Harding Hunter will receive only $1655 from the estate of his father, Rudolph Melville Hunter, prominent inventor and patent attorney.

In cutting off his son with that bequest, Hunter wrote in his will that "no alleged claims of any kind made by my son are to be construed as a debt or claim against my estate."

Hunter, a resident of Philadelphia, left more than $200,000. His will provided a $1500 annuity to his secretary, Mary Inglar, and directed the residue be placed in trust for his grand-children.

Weekly Health Talks

WATER—A POISON CHASER

"It has been well said that life and the process of dying are very closely related. The mechanics of living develop poisons as by-products. And unneutralized and retained poisons are in fact the main cause of old age and of death other than accidental. Thus, to minimize the daily quantities of poisons and to eliminate those that develop in the physiologic routine should be a matter of concern to everyone," states Dr. Edith MacBride-Dexter, state Secretary of Health.

"Nature has set up a group of organs whose duty it is to rid the system of the poisons resulting from the normal life processes. The liver, for example, actually destroys many poisons. And the bowels, kidneys and skin eliminate many more. Indeed, when these organs cease to function or become irremediably impaired, death speedily follows.

"Elimination, therefore, should should become a very important watchword for all those who seriously desire to live as long and healthily as possible. And in this connection it should be emphasized that the kidneys are the main eliminative organs. Moreover, water is the chief agent employed by them to do the job.

"Any physician can point to patients whose water intake has been habitually limited but who otherwise were living according to nature's rules, whose health and energy took a decided and sometimes remarkable change for the better when they increased their daily water consumption.

"It is not at all uncommon for persons who habitually neglect to drink sufficient water suffer muscular and neuralgic pain and headaches. Other direct symptoms of this deficiency are dullness and lack of concentration—to mention but a few.

"In the average person thirst is usually the only requirement for the body's normal water demand. Yet, there are certain individuals whose thirst sense is for some reason so dulled that they are quite unconscious of the bodily needs.

"Therefore, it undoubtedly would pay many persons to check on their water consumption, if below normal and set a six-glass daily schedule for yourselves in the respect: a larger amount, of course, in the heated days when one perspires freely.

"To those needing such a regimen it is suggested that one should drink a glass upon arising, one in midforenoon, one in mid-afternoon and one at each meal.

"To conclude, water is a most efficient poison-chaser. However, like everything else, its goodness does not lie in an abstract statement, but its personal and conscientious application. It is very unwise to be water-shy."

DOG KEEPS VIGIL OVER DEAD OWNER

(International News Service)

PITTSBURG, April 9.—Keeping vigil over the inert form of his friend, a police dog, for two days, "Mike," a shepherd dog, carried out to the fullest degree the traits of loyalty and faithfulness found in the canine kingdom.

The police dog, killed by an automobile, lay in a street for two days, while "Mike" snapped and snarled at anyone who tried to remove the dog from the streets. Finally "Mike's" owner, informed of the whereabouts of his dog, was successful in calling the animal away from its vigil.

QUOTA CLUB AT NEW WILMINGTON

Quota Club of New Castle held its regular dinner meeting Monday evening at The Overlook, New Wilmington, at six thirty. Due to inclement weather, the pleasure of touring the beautiful grounds was denied but suggestions of spring were cleverly carried out in the dinner arrangements. Miss Mae Cummings presided in the absence of Mrs. Claire Brown, president.

Miss Lois Fenton, of New Wilmington, introduced Miss Lucille Beerbower, Resident Director of Brown Hall, Freshmen Women's Dormitory who spoke on "Signs of Spring." Her talk was so interesting and convincing that one could almost see the blue skies, hear the birds sings, and see nature unfold all the beauty of spring.

An invitation has been extended the local club to attend the twelfth birthday dinner of the Butler Club, on April 30. It was decided to dispense with the regular dinner meeting of the 29th and attend the Butler dinner as a club.

The District Frolic of all of the clubs in District No. Three, to be held at the Summitt Hotel, near Uniontown, the week end of May 18, was discussed and quite a number of Quotarians are planning to attend.

Mrs. Orra K. Snyder will be in charge of the meeting next Monday evening, at which time we will have a finger print expert with us, who will not only give us a talk but will demonstrate finger-printing. This promises to be a very interesting program. This meeting will be at the Elk's Club at six o'clock.

Hadassah Board Meeting

Inasmuch as Mrs. Howley has just recently returned from New York City where she attended a meeting of the advisory committee to the National Council of Junior Garden clubs of America, of which she has been honored by membership, her talk will be up-to-date and most interesting.

Make Protests On Food Prices

Dauphin County Organization Gets Reply On Rising Price Protest

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 9.—Recent sharp increases in the prices of food have halted and further material advances are unlikely, it was indicated in federal government reports received here.

A letter by Calvin B. Hoover, consumers' counsel of the U. S. department of agriculture, in reply to a protest by the Dauphin County Consumers' council against the rising cost of food prices, pointed out:

"The rise in food prices which has taken place has been sharply accentuated by last year's drought. All the programs for food crop adjustment for this year, as a consequence of our experience with the drought, have provided for a larger acreage than last year.

"Our reports indicate that that rise in food prices has halted. Food prices on February 2, 1935, were about 15 per cent below the February average of all costs of living.

"Food prices at the bottom of the depression had dropped far below other items in the cost of living. Some increase in food prices was necessary if the farmers of the country were to receive prices for their products which would enable them to buy the goods purchased by the workers of our cities."

"It seems extremely unlikely," the letter added, "that there will be any further material advance in food costs unless and until an increase in employment and wages of consumers provides a natural increase in purchasing power."

An innovation of the season is pastel colored lingerie. Fragile, lovely underthings of filmy chiffon are being created in pearly gray, French blue and soft rose. Exquisite.

Gossipers Couldn't Fool Mrs. Pierce

SHE LOST 50 POUNDS OF FAT

Feel full of pep and possess the slender form you crave for. You can't if you listen to gossipers who'd secretly hate to see you take off ugly fat but notice that Mrs. Pierce had a mind of her own.

Here's a treatment—tested and proved SAFE for years—not only to take off excess fat but also a health corrector: take a half teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts in a cup of hot water every morning (tastes fine with juice of half lemon added).

Mrs. L. W. Pierce of Tiffin, Ohio, writes: "I've taken off 50 lbs. with Kruschen in 6 months. I was 236 and intend to continue till I'm 154." If one jar (lasts 4 weeks and costs but trifle) doesn't take 12 lbs. off you—money back. Eckerd's Drug Store, New Castle Drug Co.

LEGISLATURE TO MAKE STATE RELIEF PROBE

Senate Joins In House Action

Investigation Is Aimed At Securing Actual Facts On State Relief Need

SIX LEGISLATORS TO HEAD INQUIRY

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 9. — Sweeping legislative investigation into the massive state-wide unemployment relief structure, crux of the tax deadlock in the General Assembly, was assured today.

To the accompaniment of unrestrained whistling and shouts of approval from delegations of jobless, the senate early today concurred in the Horst resolution creating a joint committee to probe relief. Shortly before the action, the unemployed representatives told a senate committee relief in Pennsylvania was "a political mess."

President Pro Tem John Homsher, Lancaster, and Speaker Wilson G. Sarig, Berks, were expected to name the senate and house members of the committee respectively before the week is ended. Three members will sit from each branch of the legislature.

Object Of Probe

Broad enough in scope to permit the probers to direct their inquiry along almost any channels, the resolution directs studies:

"To make a searching and impartial investigation of the distribution of public relief throughout this commonwealth;

"To ascertain whether, and in what respect, the present system is open to abuse;

"To ascertain whether additional legal safeguards should be provided;

"To ascertain whether appropriations for relief can be reduced;

"To collate and digest reports of other investigating committees;

"And to investigate such other facts and circumstances as shall be deemed necessary."

To Determine Chiseling

The investigation was expected to be directed primarily to determine the amount of "chiseling" on relief lists and to devise methods of reducing the present $20,000,00-a-month relief bill. Republicans insist Gov. George H. Earle's request for $120,000,000 for relief during the next biennium was exorbitant.

Relief Director Robert L. Johnson said he welcomed the investigation and pledged co-operation with the committee in obtaining data required.

The senate's approval of the resolution, which was passed by the house last week, came after an impromptu hearing granted the unemployed delegations by the finance committee. The spokesmen went into the hearing to urge support of Governor Earle's tax program, but lingered to air charges that relief was seriously mismanaged in many spots throughout the state.

Pittsburgh Man Delivers Sermon

Dr. Roy Manne Speaks At First M. E.; Dr. C. G. Farr To Be Speaker Tonight

A masterful sermon on "The Incompleted Portrait of Christ" was delivered by the Rev. Roy E. Manne, D. D., at the Lenten service at the First M. E. church on Monday evening. Dr. Manne, who is pastor of the Bellevue M. E. church, Pittsburgh, was, before entering the Christian ministry, a member of the local church, and he was greeted again, as on Sunday evening, by a large number of friends of former years and many words of appreciation were heard.

The pastor, Dr. Norris A. White, was in charge of the service and announced that the speaker this evening will be the Rev. Dr. C. G. Farr, well-known superintendent of the Grove City district. The services will continue each evening throughout the week except Saturday.

There are radical changes in skirts this season. Fuller skirts, circular, gored, kilt plaited, but always trim around the hips. Day models are shorter, but sweeping length is shown for evening wear, although one bell shaped model slightly trailing in back and curved up much shorter in front is shown.

France originated the idea of honoring an unknown soldier as a symbol of all those who lost their lives in defense of their country.

Three Cheers For Donahey.

By ARTHUR BRISBANE

MIAMI, Fla., April 9.

EVERYTHING is within your reach in this country, if you care to find it, by rail, boat, automobile or airplane. One night on the train, and the second morning you are awakened by a flock of wild parrots, squawking violently in the cocoanut palms, between your house and the water.

Here you are actually in tropics, and at this season, it is hot. When you walk barefoot along boards by the beach you lift and put down each foot gingerly, like a hen walking in the season's first snow.

FLORIDA cannot have California's big mountains, or biggest ocean, but she is determined to have a summer season, the same as California.

Orville Rigby, city commissioner, and L. L. Lee, city manager of Miami, have flown to Chicago to open there an office in the Michigan building devoted to bringing summer tourists to Miami.

Chicago might reply by opening a Miami office to lure Miami citizens to the edge of Lake Michigan, and on into Wisconsin's admirable lake region. Oconomowoc, for instance, close to Milwaukee, offers a summer resort for tourists, not easily surpassed in this or any other country.

Miami deserves praise for trying experiments in the north. Only trying brings success. Many visitors come from Cuba to spend the summer months on this coast, and Florida says: "If California can do it, we can."

To draw tourists from Florida would be difficult, because here it is considered unpatriotic to go away in summer, and there is work to be done, every minute, getting ready for next fall's crop of northern innocents that leave their money with the horse and dog races, when they might be buying good real estate.

Florida, where the depression started first, is fast forgetting about it. There is more money piled up in the banks now than at the peak of the boom, ten years ago. Real estate transactions, according to Frank Shutts, Miami Herald, which prints this column, are resuming the old activity, running into millions a week. Perhaps the worst will soon pass elsewhere, as it has done here.

MYRON C. TAYLOR'S report to United States Steel stockholders of greatly increased tonnage is reflected in automobile production during the first three months of this year.

The moment an American family feels more prosperous and secure it buys a new automobile. Many have waited for several years, since 1929, and when the financial "rain" stops, as it always does, and real buying starts, it will set new records not hitherto imagined.

A country that used to buy two million buggies yearly, in the old days, will easily buy six million automobiles, every twelve months.

RUSSIA, according to Lloyd George, is the world's real flying nation, possess, probably, the world's greatest fighting air fleet.

It is certainly the country that takes flying most seriously, with eight million Russians trained in aeronautics, young Russian girls learning to pilot planes and dirigibles and make twenty thousand foot parachute jumps, as your young girls learn new dance steps.

This makes important Russia's announcement that she is manufacturing airplanes on a mass production basis, using for air power "an ordinary light automobile engine".

The planes, very cheap, using ordinary gasoline, will be supplied to collective farms. Russia may be the first nation to do with flying machines what this country did with automobiles. American genius put this nation on wheels. If Russian engineering skill puts Russia on wings, it will make some other countries thoughtful.

The cheap planes, two seats, room for two fliers or one man and one bomb, are not fast, only seventy miles an hour, you can go a long distance, if you keep at it.

Soldiers from the east formerly traveled toward western Europe on shaggy ponies, about five miles an hour, eight hours a day. Seventy miles an hour, fifteen hours a day is an improvement on that.

And Russia does not concentrate on cheap, mass production seventy-miles-an-hour planes only. She has produced the only plane that can fly seventy-five hundred miles, without landing or taking on fuel.

That plane ought to interest the world, even Washington, if it could get its minds off national "boon doggling".

A GENTLEMAN of Toledo, Ohio, named Silas E. Hurin, wrote to Senator Donahey, urging him to support United States entrance into the World Court.

Senator Donahey sent an answer that surprised the Ohio gentleman, who sent it for publication to a weekly called "The New Republic," telling the sympathetic editor that he considered Senator Donahey's reply "so much like mere piffle that it cannot be dignified by designating it as an argument."

Some citizens will find in Senator Donahey's reply exactly the answer that 90 per cent of Americans would have like to send. They will thank the "New Republic" for making it possible to give the letter fairly wide publicity. This is the senator's letter, and THREE CHEERS FOR HIM.

"If Great Britain made the payment due us on the war debt, it would cost her 4.1 per cent of her budget. She says she can't pay us but she is spending 13 per cent of her budget on armaments.

"If France paid, it would cost her 2 per cent of her budget. She says she can't pay us, but she is spending 27.4 per cent of her budget on armaments. After the armistic was signed we loaned France more than a million dollars and during the same period of time she loaned other European countries $700,000,000.

"If Italy paid us, it would cost her 1.4 per cent of her budget. She says she can't pay, but she is spending 33.1 per cent on armaments.

"We spent $42,000,000,000 on their war. We loaned them $12,-000,000,000 more. We conscripted 4,000,000 men for their war. We shipped 2,000,000 across the sea. We shipped almost all in British bottoms, and paid Great Britain $140 to $180 for the transport of every boy. We paid them to transport our boys to their war.

"A hundred and twenty-five thousand of those boys never came back.

"We are paying $800,000,000 a year interest on those debts that we contracted for them and that they now refuse to pay.

"If you subscribe to the greatest fraud of all time and condemn me for voting 'no' on World Court adherence, sign this statement and return it to me."

"Vic Donahey."

The speaker was Herbert H. Moore of DuBois, a trustee of Kiwanis International. Other speakers were state lieutenant-governors, Chester A. Darling of Meadville, G. Weber Knight of Tarentum and Rev. M. Dep. Maynard of Ridgway.

Clubs represented were Oil City, Clarion, Greenville, Meadville, Erie, Butler, Wilkinsburg, Tarentum, Sharon, Franklin, Corry, DuBois, Warren, Ford City, Pittsburgh and Grove City.

MAKE GOOD SHOWING

GROVE CITY, April 9.—Music pupils of Harrisville high school, near here, trained by Mrs. Sylvia Boots Hassler of this city, made a creditable showing in a recent Butler County contest, held at Slippery Rock. The school captured two first places, in vocal ensemble and mixed double quartet, besides taking four seconds, four thirds, two fourths and a tie for fourth, and one fifth, out of 33 events.

New Diet System Is Offered Hefty

LONDON,—"If you want to get slim you must become a cannibal, You must eat yourself. You must eat your own fat."

Dr. J. Neil Leitch, authority on dietetics, gave this advice at the London school of Dietetics.

Prefacing his remarks, Leitch said, "Slimming is an idiotic craze and fat is a vicious circle. Fat is the buffer of the body, the tissue paper which keeps the folds in and the creases out, a great insulator against cold."

Then he offered the following advice to those determined to get slim:

"Eat from one to 20 oranges a day and nothing else but water. The carbohydrates of the oranges will burn your body fat away.

Appropriation Bill Offered

Rep. Cohen, Of York, Chairman Of House Committee, Introduces Bill

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 9—The general appropriation bill for the 1935-1937 biennium rested with the house appropriations committee today following its introduction by Rep. Herbert Cohen, York chairman.

The measure followed the budget allowances fixed earlier in the session by Gov. George H. Earle. Amounts for the house and senate were in blank but will be inserted later when adjournment has become more definite. A host of changes will be made in the bill before its final adoption. Cohen said the bill will be given one or two readings in the house and then returned to committee to wait final passage when the appropriate time arrives.

Dealers In Milk Would Be Asked To Pay Two Cents

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 9.—Assessment of two cents per 100 pounds on all milk used or sold in Pennsylvania to reimburse the state for regulating the dairy industry today had been added to the administration's new milk control legislation.

Dealers would be required to pay the levy monthly, under terms of a bill introduced by Senator Clarence J. Buckman, Bucks, at the request of the department of agriculture and the milk control board. The bill permits dealers to pass one-half of the assesment on to producers.

Buckman said he understood the administration control bill now in house committees would be amended to include the assessment provision before it is returned to the floor for action. Other provisions in Buckman's ill closely parallel those in the house measure.

Mellon's Gifts Aired In Court

Gifts And Expenditures For Educational And Charitable Fund $20,266,840

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, April 9.—Andrew W. Mellon's gifts and expenditures through the "A. W. Mellon Educational and Charitable Trust" were recited in detail when hearings in the three-million income tax battle were resumed here today.

R. S. Scott, Mellon bookkeeper, testified the financier's donations in art, cash, and securities to the trust amount to $20,266,840. The internal revenue department has rescinded an earlier ruling holding the trust was non-taxable.

But Chief Mellon Counsel Frank J. Hogan hopes to show the board of tax appeals the trust was established as a public charity. In its attempt to collect $3,089,261 from Mellon on his 1931 income, the government has disallowed a deduction for the $3,000,000 gifts in paintings to the trust. Mellon wants a refund of $139,045.

Music Festival To Be Attraction

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, April 9.—A music festival, similar to those in Europe that attract Pilgrims each year, is planned for Western Pennsylvania this summer.

The celebration, in which choirs, choruses, soloists, bands and drum corps will participate, is to be held at Forbes Field on June 29, sponsored by the Pittsburgh Sun-Telegraph. Famous musicians will be on hand to award honors to winning individuals and groups.

COCK PHEASANTS SOUGHT BY STATE

HARRISBURG, April 9.—The game commission wants to secure additional cock ringneck pheasants for restocking purposes.

The need for additional cock birds in certain sections of the state is paramount at this time to augment the native supply, officials said.

Dealers who have any of these birds for sale at the present time are asked to contact their local game protector, or preferably, communicate direct with the board of game commissioners at Harrisburg.

PRINTS ARE LOVELIER THAN EVER

Without any reservations it may be said that the new prints are lovelier than ever. Here are two formal dresses: left, a Mainbocher in green and red printed silk on a beige ground, with whalebone in the hem to give the skirt its full quota of flare. Right is a Goupy model in blue and varicolors with tiered loops in front recalling a Japanese kimono, and tiny removable jacket that ties.

Here's Hint To Pittsburgh Dogs

Mustn't Look Dangerous If They Don't Want To Be Shot By Policemen

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, April 9.—A literal "dog's life" is the lot of Pittsburgh's canine population.

Mayor William N. McNair started it all by giving the city police orders to shoot 'dangerous looking" dogs, whether they are licensed or not, and regardless of their value. He issued the order following cancellation of a contract under which the animal rescue league handled the city's dog matters.

The league retaliated by pointing out that the immediate killing of licensed dogs would conflict with state law, which provides that all dogs bearing licenses must be impounded for 10 days before they can be put to death.

McNair's oredrs were simple ano to the point: "any dog, if he looks dangerous, is to be shot immediately, licensed or not."

As a result, patrolmen are on the alert for dogs that look dangerous, while the objects of their hunt try to amble about as nonchalantly as possible, wearing that danger-less expression.

"SNOOPING" IS NOT APPROVED BY JUDGE

(International News Service)

READING, Pa., April 9.—State liquor control board agents were criticized for going "snooping about the country" by Judge F. A. Marx in Berks county court when he sentenced Paul Hoffman, of Douglassville, to pay a fine of $300 and spend 30 days in jail for unlawfully selling liquor.

Hoffman testified that the wife of Robert K. Hollowbush, an agent, had pretended illness and that he "gave her a drink."

Hollowbush denied Hoffman's testimony, maintaining that he and friends had purchased liquor from Hoffman.

"I don't approve of this snooping about the country," Judge Marx said.

Many Projects Are Scheduled

State Welfare Buildings To Be Enlarged With Federal Funds

ALLOCATION IS ASKED BY STATE

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 9.—"Carrying a total cost of $41.171,627, a rehabilitation program for construction of new buildings and additions at state institutions under the department of welfare today was submitted by the department to the state planning board.

The department applied for an allocation from the new $4.880,000,000 works relief fund, of which Pennsylvania is expected to receive a $350,000,000 slice. A total of 332 separate projects comprise the program.

To Increase Facilities

Of the total outlay, more than $24,000,000 would be spent to increase the capacity of various institutions now badly overcrowded. Another $1,000,000 is specified for removal of existing fire hazards which secretary of labor and industry Edward N. Jones has ordered completed within two years threat of closing the buildings.

Dietary, water, laundry, sewage power and light facilities are listed in a group of projects costing $8,000,000. The rest of the money requested would go to increase school rooms, chapel facilities, quarters for employes and similar construction.

Of the program, secretary of welfare J. Evans Scheehle said:

"The department has been faced with the problem of overcrowding in the state's welfare institutions, since the necessity of providing funds for relief sidetracked all new construction by the state some years ago. Overcrowding already has become alarming in the mental hospital. The state schools for mental defectives have a waiting list of 2,800, of which 800 are urgent cases. The state penitentiaries are badly congested.

Expenditure Estimates

"The state penitentiaries and industrial schools are badly congested, only two of these institutions being able to house each inmate in an individual cell. The penal institutions are housing many feeble-minded delinquents and border line insane who are a daily hazard to orderly prison routine."

Estimated expenditures, follow: Allentown State Hospital, $1,372,120; Danville State Hospital, $1,175,328; Farview State Hospital, $1,076,600; Harrisburg State Hospital, $1,535,343; Norristown State Hospital, $5,908,438; Torrence State Hospital, $4,430,632; Warren State Hospital, $1,346,887; Wernersville State Hospital, $2,127,704; Pennhurst State School, $2,288,151; Polk State School, $2,009,500; Laurelton State Village, $1,961,700; Selinsgrove State Colony, $1,386,820; Eastern State Penitentiary, $160,200; New Eastern Pen (Graterford) $4,998,006; Western State Penitentiary $96,200; Western State Pen, (Rockview) $268,400; Penna. Ind. School (Huntingdon) $785,330; State Ind. Home for Women (Muncy) $536,520; Penna. Training School (Morganza) $517,784; State Med. & Surg. Hospitals (9) $1,899,964; Byberry (Philadelphia) $1,300,000; Cumberland Valley Institution, $2,500,000; Psychiatric Hospital (Pgh.) $1,500,000.

DOCTOR SAID SHE NEEDED "BULK" FOR HER CONSTIPATION*

Kellogg's ALL-BRAN Brings Relief to Mrs. Maneely

Read the following unsolicited letter:

"Up to five years ago, I knew no end of suffering caused by constipation.* I used all kinds of laxatives but only found relief till I got used to them. My physician told me to get some Kellogg's ALL-BRAN, and instructed me how to use it.

"I did just as I was told by my doctor, and today I send my highest praise for what your ALL-BRAN has done for me." — Mrs. Jas. Maneely, Jr., 9 Kilburn St., Valley Falls, R. I.

*Due to insufficient "bulk" in meals.

ALL-BRAN provides gentle "bulk" to help overcome common constipation. It is also a good source of vitamin B and iron.

The "bulk" of ALL-BRAN is often more effective than the "bulk" in fruits and vegetables, as it does not break down within the body. Two tablespoonfuls daily are usually sufficient. If not corrected this way, see your doctor.

Isn't this food much pleasanter and safer than risking patent medicines? Get the red-and-green package at your grocer's. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Better Business Just Ahead Says Charles R. Gay

Gay Accepts Nomination As President Of New York Stock Exchange

(International News Service)

NEW YORK, April 9.—Optimistically predicting better business conditions with business leaders "anxious to go ahead," Charles R. Gay, a governor of the New York Stock Exchange, announced acceptance of the nomination for presidency of the world's biggest trading mart.

Richard Whitney, incumbent president, also announced acceptance of his nomination for a post on the exchange's governing board. This acceptance indicated an end to his friend's efforts to draft him as an independent candidate to oppose Gay. The nominations were made by the exchange nominating committee.

"The nominating committee of the New York Stock Exchange has honored me with the nomination for president, and I have accepted," said Gay in a formal statement.

"The present volume of transactions on the exchange is abnormally low. I am convinced that we are on the eve of better times, that business men are anxious to go ahead. As conditions change for the better they will undoubtedly be reflected in more active markets.

"Stock Exchange prices do not make business but they do indicate the attitude of the nation's business men. They are the barometer of business conditions.

"I think a new day has come."

People must believe in the Townsend plan. You don't hear so many saying they haven't got room for the old folks.

On Court House Hill

Notary Public commission for Miss Ruth E. Jamison of this city has been placed on record at the register and recorder's office.

Motion for a new trial has been made by the plaintiff in the case of Andy Rotunno against Erskine and Schraum, in which a verdict was rendered in favor of the defendant. The case involved a claim of plaintiff for limestone quarried at Hillsville.

Under the will of the late J. B. Caldwell of the sixth ward, $1000 is left to a granddaughter, Mary Louise Beattie, $1000 to a grandson, Carl J. Caldwell and $1000 to a grandson, Ellis L. Caldwell. Remainder of the estate is left to a son, William E. Caldwell, who is also named as executor.

Application has been made for a new trial in the case of Joseph Butera against the H. G. Preston Company, in which the jury rendered a verdict in favor of the plaintiff for $1200. The case was one involving an automobile accident on the New Castle-Wampum road at a curve south of the bridge at Willow Grove.

Sixty five instruments of all kinds were recorded at the register and recorder's office during the past week. Of this number, 39 were deeds and 19 were mortgages, mostly to building and loan associations. Two Home Owners Loan Corporation mortgages were recorded, one for $3,950 and the other for $2,208.

Under the will of the late Mrs. Nora McCann of this city, certain personal property is left to a son, John F. McCann, and a granddaughter Lois Shoaff. To George Weller is left certain furniture and two insurance policies, one for $1000 in the Protected Home Circle and one for $500 in the Womens' Benefit Association. The remainder of the estate is divided equally between decedent's son, John F. McCann and grand-daughter, Lois Shoaff.

Uncertainties of life are illustrated in an old program of a banquet held by the Lawrence County Bar Association in possession of Attorney George W. Muse. The banquet was held on June 6, 1900, on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of the first court ever held in Lawrence county. Part of the program was historical. There were eight attorneys assigned subjects, the chairman of the Committee being Attorney S. L. McCracken. Today only one of the eight, S. L. McCracken, is alive. There were fourteen members of the bar who made short addresses on another committee, and today only four are alive.

Motion for a new trial has been made by the defendant in the case of Gilbert Dominitz of Pittsburgh against R. E. Conway of Enon, in which a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $1,250 was awarded by a jury at court last week. The case grew out of an automobile accident on the Falcon hill in Beaver county. It was claimed that it was caused by Conway passing a truck and trailer on the hill and running into Dominitz, who was coming in the opposite direction.

Sheriff Edward D. Pritchard and deputies have been taking a very active part in the search for John W. Dinsmore, who has been missing for more than a week. The sheriff and at least some of his deputies have been out every day and night.

Various occupations are well represented among the nine women and forty-eight men who are serving on the jury this week. There are twelve laborers, seven farmers, seven clerks, four retired, three salesmen, two ministers, two tinworkers, two millworkers, one steel worker, one inspector, one garage man, two mechanics, one carpenter, one railroader, one stone worker, one painter, one engineer, one foreman, one moulder and nine housekeepers.

Stamp Club Has Session On Monday

Interesting Meeting Is Conducted At Y. M. C. A.—To Join Federation

The New Castle Stamp club held a very interesting meeting last night in the library of the Y. M. C. A. The business of the evening was in charge of the president, Glenn Montgomery. Some very important matters pertaining to the club were discussed, one of which was a motion to the effect that the New Castle Stamp club become affiliated with the National Federation of Stamp clubs. This motion was passed and the application turned over to the secretary to send to the headquarters in New York City.

Quite a bit of trading took place and Glenn Montgomery distributed small approval booklets to the members for mounting their duplicate stamps in, this will make the handling of the stamps much easier. A few of the members are planning to attend the Beaver Valley Philatelic society's convention in Beaver Falls next Saturday and Sunday.

H. E. Hickling, Mrs. Duckworth, Madeline Duckworth and Phillip Blackford were the visitors present.

A suggestion was made to change the meeting night from the second and fourth Mondays to the first and third Fridays of each month. The date of the next meeting, therefore, will be announced later.

Among the interesting new formal dresses are those made of metal cloth and gold and silver lame. Many of these are made with long train which lends dignity to the gown. The most popular color is blue, ranging from turquoise, aquamarine and peacock shades to deep sapphire and navy. The next most popular color is white, especially among the younger set. Another favorite color is emerald green.

Herbert Hoover And "Al" Smith Extend Greetings

Meet In New York City And Have Date For Meeting Wednesday

By GEORGE H. KENNEDY, JR.
International News Service Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, April 9.—Herbert Hoover and Alfred E. Smith, those two bitter political enemies of pre-depression days, have more than a speaking acquaintance today. They have a date for tomorrow.

Smith reminded Hoover of it as they said good-bye last night after the two of them had opened a Salvation Army drive, meeting for the first time since 1927 (they never met in the battle of 1928).

"Well, good-bye, Mr. President," said Smith with the courteous Tammany habit of always conferring upon a man the title of the most distinguished office he has ever held just as Smith himself is still "Governor" to all his friends and followers.

"I'll see you Wednesday at the meeting," said Smith and then, as if it were his habit to say something in difficult situations he added, "at our usual place in Madison Avenue."

Hoover, smiling, just said, "good-bye," and departed.

Smith was referring to the board meeting of the New York Life Insurance Company and as an old director of a year's standing was doing his best to welcome the new one inducted last month.

Instead the epochal meeting occurred last night in one of the reception rooms of New York's Seventh Regiment Armory. Hoover arrived first. Col. Richard C. Patterson Jr., chairman, nervously awaited his task of introducing the two distinguished guests when Smith entered, walked right over to where Hoover stood, put out his hand and said in that peculiar timber of voice that radio has made familiar in every American household: "How are you, Mr. President."

Johnson Says No Politics In State Relief

State Director Re-Affirms Declaration To New Castle Authorities

In a statement to the local relief administration State Director Robert L. Johnson again reaffirmed his four square position against politics in the relief work. "There is no place in this organization for active political workers" said Mr. Johnson. "If anyone knows of specific cases I wish to know about them also. I don't intend to hire any Democrats because they are Democrats, nor to fire any Republicans because they are Republicans. Other considerations in selecting personnel who are charged with disbursing $30,000 an hour are far more important than how they voted."

"The only possible way of keeping expenditures in line is by securing and holding efficient persons whose sole interests lie with Emergency Relief and its solution. I welcome any and all investigations where the real purpose is to help us become more efficient."

"As far as expenditures for relief are concerned we are now releasing a weekly statement in a frank and honest manner. If some people think costs are too high I doubt very much if that opinion can be changed by a statement from me."

April Snowfall Quickly Melted

Warmer Weather Today Melts "Onion Snowfall", Traffic Is Resumed

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, April 9.—Pittsburghites awoke today with many sighs of relief. Instead of having to "dig out" of the snow blanket that covered the city and surrounding Western Pennsylvania last night, they saw that warmer weather, following in the wake of the cold snap, had melted most of the snow.

Low visibility was the principal traffic hazard of the storm. Motorists who had been marooned in the mountains were on their way home today. Airplanes were grounded by the low ceiling.

Since the mercury did not fall too low, thus injuring orchards, the farmers welcomed the snowfall as a boon after a dry March.

Temperance Play Given At Church

New Wilmington Audience Deeply Impressed With Presentation

OTHER NEWS OF COLLEGE TOWN

(Special To The News)

NEW WILMINGTON, April 9.—"The Prisoner At the Bar" a play dramatizing the evil influence of intoxicating beverages, was admirably presented at a union meeting of the local churches in the auditorium of the United Presbyterian church on Sunday evening.

The play featured a local cast with the exception of Dr. W. P. McGarey, district superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League, who portrayed the role of the prisoner, the defendant, charged with the murder of his wife. The note of pathos and tragedy running throughout the play, made its effectiveness more pronounced.

Members of the cast included: Prof. Edwin Anderson as the judge; Dr. H. L. Black as district attorney; Attorney T. V. Mansell, defense attorney; Mrs. Hall, a witness, Mrs William McElwee; sheriff, William Morgan; fingerprint expert, Richard Davis; clerk, William White; Dorothy Jones, a child, Margaret McClure; bailiff, Robert Weber.

PARENT-TEACHERS

Dr. R. F. Galbreath, president of Westminster College, will be guest speaker at tonight's meeting of the local Parent-Teacher's Association which will be held in the school house. Dr. Galbreath has chose, "The Tax Payer and the Public School System" as his theme for the evening.

Two short plays will feature the program, one by the junior high school under the tutelage of Miss Marjorie Gilliland, and the other presentation will be done by members of the dramatic club under the direction of William Hamilton. "The Lost Trousers," the junior high production, will have as its characters, Mary Kathryn Bott, Helen Francis, James McLaughry, James Lawther and Raymond Sharp. In the dramatic club play, "Bitter Pills," characters will be portrayed by Eugene Ammon, Mary Beth McLaughry and Isabelle Patton.

Miss Elizabeth Rose will furnish special music for the meeting.

REACH GOAL

For the second time in three weeks, the church school of the Methodist church has reached its goal of 200 members. The church auditorium was filled nearly to capacity on Sabbath morning, and when the count was completed just exactly 200 were present.

Determined to keep up the good work, church authorities have set a goal of 225 individuals next Sunday, with the climax on Easter Sunday when 250 people is the goal.

TRAP SHOOTERS

Something new in the field of sport has been inaugurated recently in the community mainly through the efforts of Robert Galbreath. Every Saturday the expert marksmen of the district gather at the local athletic field and indulge in the famous old sport of trap shooting.

Membership in the organization is growing rapidly, and New Wilmington can boast already of some of the finest trap shooters in the county.

HONOR BOYS WHO SERVED Y. M. C. A. IN RECENT DRIVE

Dinner Tendered 30 Workers Of Membership Force; Moore, Lash Win

Honors were heaped upon the most industrious workers of the hard-working boys' division of last week's successful Y. M. C. A. membership campaign at a testimonial dinner which the entire 30 workers attended at the Y last night.

The division, operating under the leadership of three young men, solicited 205 memberships in the drive and collected $61.50 in cash. That was a 55 per cent increase in memberships and a 91 per cent gain in cash over the 1934 boys' division drive totals.

Dean M. Staley, chief of the boys' division, was assisted by Alfred H. Owens and Attorney James E. Chambers. Boys' Work Secretary Harry McClellan, worked with the group. All spoke last night.

Alec Samuels, general chairman of the entire drive, a guest at the dinner, also spoke.

Winners awarded prizes last night included:

High scoring individual for both memberships and cash—Donald Moore. A one year Y membership was given to him.

Second high scoring individual—Teddy Lash. He also received a membership.

The Atlantic Division outscored the Pacific Division insofar as division competition was concerned, 297 to 195. High scoring boats of the two divisions were the Mae West of the Atlantic, and the Anna Jeanette of the Pacific.

Other boys were given artistic Easter eggs for energetic work during the campaign.

Junior Chamber Hears City Men

Attorney Dickey, Dr. Bennett Speak Last Night; Plan Gala Dinner

Members of New Castle's Junior Chamber of Commerce, meeting in The Castleton ballroom last night, heard two civic leaders, Attorney Thomas W. Dickey and Dr. G. S. Bennett, declare that the new organization will fill a "definite need" here.

The two speakers cited specific ways by which the group, with a growing membership, may "be of great benefit to New Castle."

Attorney Dickey, treasurer of the Senior Chamber of Commerce, reviewed at length figures which pictured the industrial life of the city for the past decade. He also brought greetings from the senior group. Dr. Bennett, relief leader, told of the work of the Orlando, Fla., junior chamber.

The membership last night chose Monday, April 29, as the date for the organization's inaugural dinner at The Castleton. A prominent speaker will be secured for that event.

President D. D. Young presided last night during the business session, while Earle M. Brookover and Dean M. Staley presided over the speaking session.

Junior Visitors To Be Selected

Relief Office Accepting Applications For Three Days Time

Applications will be received at the office of Supervisor Blanche Humphrey, for positions as Junior Visitors, it was stated today at the relief office. The applications will be received today, Wednesday and Thursday, closing Thursday night at five o'clock.

To qualify at a junior visitor an applicant must have had at least a high school education. Further educational qualification is desirable and credits are allowed for persons who have had more education than high school.

Credits are allowed for experience in allied fields, such as teaching or nursing. For example a man or woman with a college education who has taught for a time would be given more credits than a man or woman with nothing more than a high school education and no experience in teaching nursing or other allied lines.

All applications received by Miss Humphrey will be sent to Harrisburg where they will be examined and the more eligible applicants selected for the examination. This examination will be held in New Castle later and the new visitors selected.

It is not necessary to be on relief to apply for a position as Junior Visitor although a relief case with the proper qualifications will receive attention first. The positions are open to men and women.

Wampum, Croton, Residents Will Go To Epworth

Special Service Tonight At Epworth M. E. Expected To Attract Crowd

Twenty-five carloads of people from Wampum are planning to attend tonight's services at the Epworth M. E. church of New Castle, and a large delegation will also be present from the Croton M. E. church.

Rev. C. H. Hauger, pastor of the Croton church, will preach the sermon. The men's octette is to sing several numbers and Mrs. Vance of Wampum, will be the soloist.

Great interest has been shown in the special meetings in Epworth and it is indicated that there will be a large class of adults to be received into the church. A special feature, receiving great appreciation, has been music presented by the Booster choir of Epworth.

Last night Dr. C. G. Farr, superintendent of the district, from Grove City, preached to a fine audience.

BLAME DRIVER IN FATAL CRASH

Dr. C. W. Davis, the first witness called by Coroner Potter, stated. He said he was called to treat Mrs. Stewart on the evening of March 8, and that she was suffering great pain about the left side of the chest and under the shoulder blade. He said he had ordered her removed to the hospital for an X-Ray examination but that her condition was such that the family feared to move her, and she gradually became worse until death resulted March 25. She was a woman well up in years and quite fleshy, Dr. Davis stated.

Saw Crahs.

Louis Cwynar, aged 15, of South New Castle Boro told of seeing the fatal crash. He said he was enroute home from a nearby store when he saw the cars of George Demenco and Mr. Smith approaching the intersection of Hanna and Treser streets in South New Castle Boro. The car of Smith was traveling at a slow rate of speed, while that of Mr. Demenco was going much faster. He said he could see that a crash was imminent. Demenco was proceeding north on Hanna street, and Smith was going west on Treser. The cars had their lights lit as it was dark. There were no horns blown, the youth said.

Curtis Young, who was with Cwynar, told a similar story. He said the rear end of Smith's car was struck by Demenco's machine, and the Smith car was overturned. Mrs. Smith was thrown under the machine, and when the car was righted, Mrs. Smith, who was hanging partly out the window, fell back into the car.

After the accident, he said Mr. and Mrs. Demenco got out of their machine and looked at the fenders of their car. He said someone asked Demenco to take Mrs. Smith to the hospital and he said he couldn't because his car was damaged about the bumper and fender. Someone straightened the damaged portion, he said. A neighbor man, who had come upon the scene after the crash, and who had a baby in his arms, took Mrs. Smith to the hospital. He said he held the baby for the man while he helped to right the car and went for his car.

Charles Tanner of South New Castle Boro heard the crash but did not see the actual collision, he stated.

Was In Smith Car.

George Conner, a neighbor boy of the Smiths, who was in the car when it was struck and overturned, told of the collision. He said that they were taking Mrs. Stewart to the Thompson home in South New Castle Boro, after which they intended going to the Hoover Heights Tabernacle to attend services. He was in the rear seat and when they approached the intersection, the car of Demenco seemed about 50 to 100 feet away. They were just about through the intersection when their car was struck in the back and knocked forward and overturned. They were only going about 15 to 18 miles an hour, he said.

State Highway Patrolman Joseph Vent told of being called to investigate the accident. He took Patrolman Cunningham with him as he was not familiar with the district. He got there about 8 o'clock, and by that time the victims of the crash had been taken away and the cars had been moved.

Demenco's car had a damaged front left fender, while Smith's car had a damaged rear left fender and the glass in the windows was shattered, he stated. Both drivers were licensed operators. Both claimed to have been traveling at a low rate of speed. There were no stop signs at the intersection, Vent stated.

He said Demenco could give no satisfactory explanation of how the collision had occurred.

Mrs. George Demenco, wife of the driver of one of the cars, who was with her husband the night of the collision, stated that they had been going to see a sick friend. She said she saw Smith's car coming up Treser street.

She was asked if her husband had slowed up any, and she said no that they had wanted to pass the street corner before the other car got there. She said they couldn't stop their car cause the other machine was going too fast. When they tried to stop, it was too late, she said. Their car was on the right hand side of the street at all times.

Smith Tells of Crash.

W. Clyde Smith, driver of the machine in which Mrs. Stewart was an occupant, stated that he was a son-in-law of Mrs. Stewart. They were going to take Mrs. Stewart to the home of Mrs. Thompson, a daughter, and were then intending to go to the Hoover Heights church.

He said he came up Morris street and then turned west on Treser. Half way up the block between Morris and Hanna, he said he saw the other car approaching. It seemed twice as far away from the intersection as his machine and he felt he could cross safely and started into the intersection. As they were almost across, their car was struck in the rear and turned over. They were going about 15 miles an hour, he said.

His wife went through the glass in the door. She was very badly injured, he stated. He had his wrist broken, Mr. Smith said. Mrs. Smith's injuries consisted of a fractured skull, broken collar bones, fractured hip, pelvis and her chest was injured. He said he thought Demenco would slow down when he saw he was in the intersection. He was almost across the intersection when hit, he said.

Demenco Testifies.

George Demenco, driver of the other car involved in the crash, said he was going to the home of a friend who had blood poisoning in his hand.

He was about 50 feet away when he saw the Smith car at the intersection. He was only going 15 miles an hour. He was going so slow he said that he thought he could get across before Smith.

When he saw the Smith car in front of him, he got frighteened, he said, and didn't know what to do. He had been driving a car for the last four years, he stated.

Asked if he knew that a person coming from the right had the right of way, he replied "Oh sure".

He said he was on the right side of Hanna street. He put on the brakes when he was 10 or 15 feet away, he said.

He was asked how fast the Smith car was going and stated about 20 or 30 miles an hour.

It was necessary to use an interpreter to question Mr. and Mrs. Demenco.

The coroner's jury was composed of Bernard Rocks, E. E. Linsley, C. E. Allen, Ralph Jordan, Ira Nowling and Ernest Treharne.

The complete text of their verdict was as follows:

"We, the members of the jury, find that Mrs. Julia Stewart came to her death on March 25, 1935, as a result of injuries received when the car in which she was riding, driven by W. Clyde Smith, was struck by the car of George Demenco at the intersection of Hanna and Treser streets, in Lawrence county, on March 8, 1935. We believe that the collision could have been avoided by the exercise of proper precaution by Mr. Demenco."

After the inquest, District Attorney Mont Ailey, who was present and who assisted with the questioning of the witnesses, stated that he could not say whether any action would be taken against Demenco or not, at the present time.

Signalman Saves Auto For Woman

Young Woman Stalls Auto On Crossing, Tire Is Wedged In Switch

(International News Service)

BADEN, Pa., April 9—An attractive young woman today has her auto and several hundred passengers of train No. 313, Cleveland-Pittsburgh Express, have their lives due to J. K. Kelso, signalman.

The young woman, driving her car, approached the tracks at State street crossing. The car skidded and became lodged in a switch of the tracks, directly in the path of the westbound train, due in a few minutes.

Warning Signal

Kelso saw the predicament and threw a warning signal. The heavy train roared to a stop just in time.

Trainmen and motorists finally lifted the car from the tracks as the express waited seven minutes.

"Thank you so much," said the young lady sweetly and with a pretty smile calmly drove away. No, she didn't even give her name.

Lottery Arrests In Youngstown

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio, April 9.—Nine men were arrested Monday afternoon as city police suddenly launched a campaign against lottery rackets.

One of the prisoners, Tom Walker, 44, is said to be the proprietor of the "Cincinnati Lottery," long-established rival of the so-called "Big House," which is regarded by many as the largest lottery in operation here. So far as could be learned, none of the men arrested were associated with the "Big House."

Walker was arrested on a warrant sworn by Fred Smith, who charged that he failed to pay him on a 23-cent "numbers hit" last Thursday. He pleaded not guilty. Walker, Joseph Williams, 40, and Carl McCall, 32, were charged with operating gambling houses. The other prisoners were accused of possessing lottery slips.

When Russia Sold U. S. Territory of Alaska, A Foolish Purchase Which Proved to Be Wise

THE UNITED STATES obtained one of its most valuable and prized possessions back in 1867 when Alaska was purchased from Russia for a sum of $7,200,000. William H. Seward, secretary of state in the cabinet of President Johnson, handled the negotiations for the United States, and brought about the signing of the treaty with Russia for the purchase on March 30. At the time the government treasury was in a strained condition as a result of losses and expenses in the Civil war, and Seward was subjected to considerable criticism for his action. Then, of course, the real wealth of the new territory was an unknown factor. Later, when Alaska became a center of the fur trading industry, and especially when gold was discovered in the territory, Seward was vindicated for his "folly".

DRESSMAKING SCHOOL AIDS HANDICAPPED GIRLS

The Darvas School of Fashion Art of Cleveland, teaches young women to be skillful in the art of costume designing. Its greatest claim to fame, however, is the work it is doing for young girls who are physically handicapped, in collaboration with the Cleveland branch of the Ohio state rehabilitation department. Elizabeth Kardos, principal of the school, is pictured, with two of the handicapped girls who have been helped to find interesting professions through it. Goldie Ackerman is now manager of the school's service department, while Annie Simonic designs clothes.

Dynamiters Are Given Sentences

Six Insurgent Miners Get Sentences To Eastern Pen Of Five To Ten Years

MINE STRIKE AREA IS QUIET

(International News Service)

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., April 9.—While the mine strike area remained quiet pending action at Gov. George H. Earle's peace parley in Harrisburg, five of the six insurgent miners convicted of dynamiting outrages at Warrior Run in February today received maximum sentences of five to ten years each in the eastern penitentiary from Judge W. S. McLean.

Each was also ordered to pay a fine of $500 and the costs of prosecution.

Sentence Deferred.

Sentencing of Joseph Klinitski, the sixth man found guilty, was deferred pending disposition of a motion for a new trial.

The dynamiters sentenced were Theodore Linkewicz, Joseph Swilp, James Brislin, Peter Bonsavage and Stephen Olshefski, all lower Wyoming valley members of the United Anthracite Miners of Pennsylvania, whose strike at the Glen Alden Coal company has been marked by a long series of bombings and disorders.

Cyril Washko, acquitted in the dynamiting case but found guilty of assault in connection with the stoning of the automobile of John Bradshaw, was sentenced to one and a half to two years in the eastern penitentiary.

Peter Kimbert, adjudged guilty of assault in the same case, was sentenced to serve six months to a year in the county prison. Both were also fined $50.

Maximum sentences were imposed by Judge McLean despite impassioned pleas for mercy by defense counsel. Relatives of the men were in tears in the courtroom.

Lions Growth Told At Luncheon Today

City Club Host To Slater, Field Organizer; To Aid Farrell Group

Declaring that Lions International constitutes the largest single organization of business men's service clubs in America today, Lawrence B. Slater, Chicago, special field representative of the organization, brought an inspirational message to the New Castle Lions club today.

Here with Mrs. Slater, who assists him in all of his field work, Mr. Slater told the club in his speech today of some of the personal experiences that probably played a part in the establishment of Lions International by Melvin Jones.

Mr. Slater has been here for about a week to help District Governor Ezra D. Marvin, this city, reorganize the Farrell den of the Lions. The New Castle club will send a party to that city for a reorganization dinner on Thursday evening, April 11.

Originally from North Dakota Mr. Slater—known as "Larry" to all Lions—covers the entire country as an organization director.

A comic act was produced for the club's benefit right after the luncheon today by a committee of which William Fenton was chairman.

Pep singing was led by W. O. "Red" Williams with Daniel Heitger, at the piano.

Bellevue High Strike Halted

PITTSBURGH, April 9—While 300 Moon Run high school students planned to continue their walk-out, the proposed strike of Bellevue high school students over demotion of their principal lost ground today with announcement that a citizens committee supported the school board in its action.

The citizens, "opposed to any strike the students may have in mind" endorsed demotion of Principal Edwin N. Schenkel to the position of history instructor. Schenkel appealed to the students himself, declaring: "The strike would do me more harm than good."

William J. Soost, Councilman, Dies At Pittsburgh, Pa.

His first political post came in 1924 when he was elected chairman of the Republican organization in his ward. Later he was appointed a police magistrate and then was transferred to the traffic court. In private life he followed in the footsteps of his father in the grocery business.

He is survived by a widow and two sons. Funeral services will be held Thursday.

Last Man Club Elects Officers

Thomas Martin, Of New Haven, Conn., Named As President Of Unusual Order

(International News Service)

HARTFORD, Conn., April 9.—Honor of being president of the Last Man brotherhood rested today with Thomas Martin of New Haven.

Ten of the original 33 members gathered here last night at City Club. About them were chairs, plates and candles for deceased and absent members and in the center of the table was a bottle of wine sealed by the late George Washington Bell, who until his death in 1909 was the last survivor of the Philadelphia Last Man brotherhood.

The names of departed members were intoned and candles at their places flicked out until the room was in darkness last night, whereupon members bowed their heads in prayer. Two minutes later lights were turned on and business conducted.

Wine Untouched

Under organization rules none may touch the donated bottle of wine until he becomes the sole living member. He then will go through the ritual of opening the bottle and drinking a toast to his dead comrades, their spirits, presumably, keeping him close company.

With the passing of the Philadelphia brotherhood in 1909, the local organization is said to be the only one in the East of its kind. It was founded in 1902 with 33 members. Ten have died and one disappeared many years ago.

Bell, prior to his death, broke the seal of the bottle held for more than a half century by the Philadelphia group, drank a toast to his departed comrades, and shared the remainder of the wine with members of the younger Connecticut club.

Propose Death For Kidnapers

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 9. — Approved by the house, two bills sponsored by Rep. Samuel Stevens, Westmoreland, prescribing the death penalty for kidnapers, were sent to the senate for concurrence today.

One measure provided that kidnapers who killed their victims should be found guilty of murder in the first degree and the other the death penalty in all cases where the intent was to extort money.

Aluminum Official Protests Against NRA Report Today

Brands NRA Report Of Monopoly By Aluminum Company As Unfair

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, April 9.—Roy A. Hunt, president of the Mellon-controlled Aluminum Company of America, branded as unfair today the NRA report that the aluminum concern dominates the unfinished aluminum market.

Expressing surprise "at the tone of the report which apparently draws conclusions and inferences not supported by facts," Hunt said the document will encourage a very small group of aluminum fabricators now suing the Mellon firm.

"For some 20 years Aluminum Company of America has undergone various investigations of alleged monopolistic practices," Hunt stated. "In each of these investigations it has been exonerated."

Auto Accident In South New Castle Boro Cause Of Suit

W. Clyde Smith and Mina R. Smith, his wife, of Shenango township have filed a suit at the prothonotary's office against George Demenko of South New Castle borough, in which they ask $30,000 for injuries sustained in an automobile accident at the corner of Treser and Hanna streets in South New Castle boro.

On March 8, 1935, Smith was driving west on Treser avenue, and Demenko was driving north on Hanna street. Smith claims that he reached the intersection of the two streets first and started to cross, when his car was struck by the Demenko machine and overturned.

Smith sustained a fractured right arm and cuts about the head and body. Mrs. Smith sustained a fractured skull, a broken collar bone and fractures of her hip and pelvis. Both claim that their injuries are of a permanent character.

Plaintiff alleges that Demenko was driving at a high and dangerous rate of speed, and that the accident was due to his negligence. A capias ad respondendum to hold for bail was issued against Demenko.

FIND MISBRANDED POTATOES ON SALE

HARRISBURG, April 9.—Several cases recently have come to the attention of the bureau of markets, Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture, in which potatoes advertised and labeled U. S. No. 1 grade do not meet these quality standards.

Agents of the bureau who recently made checks in Pennsylvania stores, report that potatoes are generally marked properly although several gross violations of the law were noted, George A. Stuart, director of the bureau, said. In one case packaged potatoes advertised and labeled as U. S. No. 1 contained 40 per cent. culls. The persons responsible for this misrepresentation were warned that the improper use of the U. S. grade terms for potatoes is a misdemeanor, punishable upon conviction by the payment of a $50 fine.

Large Crowd Attends Annual Event At Koppel Public School

OTHER NEWS NOTES OF COMMUNITY

(Special To The News)

KOPPEL, April 9.—On Friday evening the annual art exhibit was held at the Koppel public school with throngs of people from the community in attendance, despite inclement weather.

Examples of the students' work in art, penmanship, spelling, music and other studies had been cleverly arranged in exhibition form in the various grades. Numerous other decorations and posters added to the attractiveness of the rooms.

The exhibition is an annual event and not only brings to the people the progress that is being made in the schools, but furnishes an opportunity for parents to discuss any problems with the teachers that they may have. The principal, J. Gerald Muder, and the teachers are deserving of many compliments that have been paid them for the excellent manner in which the event had been arranged.

Hi-Y Sponsoring Sequoia Showing

Selling Tickets For Penn Theatre Show To Aid In Raising Camp Fund

Jean Parker in a Scene from "Sequoia."

As a means of raising funds to send members to the YMCA camp on Lake Erie, the Hi-Y Boys Club is sponsoring and selling tickets for "Sequoia" which plays the Penn Theatre Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Committee members are Richard Warner, John Thompson, Harold Wigton, Willis Rainey, Bill Thompson, Bill Theis, Wesley Hite, James Pherson and Bob Young.

"Sequoia" is an unusual outdoor story, starring Jean Parker. The picture's locale is in the high Sierras and required two years for the taking of it. Some amazing animal scenes are shown.

At a special screening of "Sequoia" representatives of women's clubs and educators voiced their approval of the picture. "I heartily recommend it" said Superintendent of Schools C. C. Green. Pearson, state chairman of the Garden Clubs. "Don't miss it" advises Boys Work Secretary Harry G. McClellan of the Y. M. C. A. "One of the best I have ever seen for high school age" said Miss Marguerite White, general secretary of the Y. W. C. A. "Take the entire family" is the advice of Mayor Charles B. Mayne. "Everyone interested in worthwhile pictures will see it" said Mrs. W. R. Cosel, president Lawrence County Division, Council of Jewish Women.

FORTY EIGHT IN COUNTY MAY BE ENUMERATORS

By ARTHUR C. WIMER
Special Washington Correspondent, New Castle News

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 9—At least 48 Lawrence county residents may receive temporary work this summer as enumerators in an unemployment census tentatively planned by Secretary of Commerce Roper, within whose department the Census Bureau is included.

Mr. Roper believes that the Administration's unemployment relief activities would be made much more effective if exact data were available on the number and location of jobless. In this he has support from a considerable number of Democratic leaders. So Secretary Roper has tentatively promised that if money becomes available from the $4,800,000,000 relief bill, an unemployment count will be made.

In conducting this census, one enumerator would be employed for each 2000 residents. This system would employ about 48 Lawrence county residents as enumerators. Beaver county would have approximately 74 enumerators and Butler county, 40.

Congress Faces Summer Session

Huge Amount Of Legislation Confronts Present Session Of Congress

MANY CONTROVERSIES MUST BE ADJUSTED

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
International News Service Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, April 9.—A long summer session confronted the 74th Congress today as it faced a major program loaded down with NRA, banking, soldiers bonus, labor, social security, agricultural, munition and tax legislation.

While President Roosevelt's $4,880,000,000 work relief bill has been enacted, it marked the only major legislative accomplishment of Congress after 13 weeks of sessions. Unless house and senate begin legislating at a faster rate of speed, it would seem the session must last for the rest of the year if the president's program is to be enacted into law.

The senate opened the week with an angry debate over recommitting the Copeland Pure Food and Drug Act. The president has recommended its passage but there has been so much argument over its new provisions for regulating drugs and foodstuffs that the senate may send it back to committee.

In the house a new river and harbor bill was to be considered. It faced a tortuous path to enactment because of a hundred controversies over inclusion of local projects.

The president's NRA legislation, designed to extend the Blue Eagle for another two years, was the subject of factional warfare in committees at both ends of the capitol. It will face even worse controversy when it is finally brought to the floor of house and senate. There was just a bare possibility the senate might terminate the NRA and thrown the Blue Eagle into an ash can.

Banking reform legislation was being debated too in committee. A bill of some character must be passed, if for no other reason than to extend the highly successful deposit insurance act.

The soldiers bonus bill, already passed by the house, rested in the senate finance committee.

AROUND CITY HALL

Police chronology for 24 hour ending at 3:30 p. m. April 8, six arrests on charges as follows: Violation of parking regulation 2, drunkenness 1 and suspicion.

Jack Young, colored, 258 West Falls street, who is the dog catcher for the city of New Castle, has had not only the life of his police dog aide but also himself threatened by some lover of dogs, according to a missive sent through the mails and turned over to the city police for investigation. Sometime ago Young received communications of a threatening nature from California and Indiana but this is the first threat letter received from within the city limits. The letter reads. "Catching dogs in the cruel way you are doing is not allowed in a civilized country so you had better keep your dog off the streets of New Castle. You will not only miss him but will not wake up yourself some a. m. or night. (Signed(A lover of animals."

It was indicated more strongly than ever in council session at the municipal building Monday that council will not pave in front of school properties excepting as a last resort. They plainly stated that thoroughfares on which public school property is located will come last. Solicitor Robert White said a few days ago that the city's share of paving 18 streets would come to probably $18,000, and the city would not have sufficient money to pave in front of the schools. He hinted that the city may pave up to a point where the school property begins and take up paving where the property ends. If this plan is put through it may save the city some money but it will look like a crazy-quilt job.

It is seldom that any bill presented to the city is read in council session unless it is a bill of extraordinary size. Councilmen take the attitude they know about the bill, a proper requisition having been presented to the purchasing agent for the material required and once having been approved the material is bought and received. Here are a few bills approved recently: Castle Stationery $118.88; Bell Telephone company, $145.42; Hunter's laundry (fire department) $10.00; case of matches $4.95; New Castle Water Company, $52.94 for repairs to fire hydrant broken by autoist at Mercer and Grant streets; D. R. McKee Ice company, ice, $3.27; Gamewell company, rectifier, $25.82; DeCarbo building rental (manufacturing place for signs) $10.00; H. M. Leach rental for building at 421 Croton avenue for RWD tool check, $10.00; J. B. Lightner, rental as shelter house at 529 Croton avenue (3 mos.) $24.00; Keystone & Lawrence Transfer company hauling roller, Youngstown to this city, $25.00; J. B. Foster, plate glass insurance renewal policy, $66.71; McBride & Shannon, insurance, Pirsch fire truck, $108.50; James R. Hughes, auto compensation, $8.50; M. L. & H. company gas bill for city owned buildings, $118.53; C. G. Walker, auto compensation, $8.50; Sinclair Refining company, gasoline $354.80; M. Greensberg & Sons, Police car No. 1 tires, $40.00; Oakland Service station 147 loads of ashes, $73.50; Bi-Lateral Fire Hose company, 150 feet 4x5 Bi-lateral special white covered hose, $112.50; Boyles and Milsom, ashes, 201 $100.50.

Thaddeus Stevens' Appeal For Schools Will Be Re-Enacted

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 9.—Exactly a century to the day after Thaddeus Stevens delivered the speech which saved Pennsylvania's free school law from repeal, four legislators who have served in the public school system will partially re-enact the famous scene next Thursday.

Speaker Wilson G. Sarig, Berks school teacher, tentatively set 11 a. m. as the hour for the special observance of the 100th anniversary of the address which ended with the stirring admonition to the legislature not to repeal the law. Instead, he advised:

"That the legislature see to it that the blessing of education shall be carried home to the poorest child of the poorest inhabitant of the meanest hut of your mountains."

Program Arranged

The program is being arranged by Rep. Harry J. Brownfield, Fayette, chairman of the house education committee and a public school teacher. He will close the program with a description of the effect of Stevens' appeal on the development of free schools.

Rep. Miles Horst, Lebanon, will deliver a brief review of the life and activities of Thaddeus Stevens and describe the circumstances under which the act, passed in 1834, was about to be repealed on April 11, 1835. Horst is a former school director.

Then, the most significant excerpts of the address itself will be delivered by Rep. Denis L. Westrick, farmer and teacher in Cambria county.

FALSE FIRE ALARMS COSTLY TO CITY

(International News Service)

PITTSBURGH, April 9.—Asserting that more than 50 per cent of Pittsburgh's fire alarms in one month have been false, Fire Chief Richard L. Smith believes false alarms will cost the city $100,000 this year.

"The situation is fierce," he said. "It's become so bad that we've got to do something to curb it. The joke is really on the people who turn in false alarms just to see the firemen answer them, because we spend from $100 to $150 of the taxpayers' money every time we answer a call."

SOUTH SIDE MAN REPORTED BETTER

Additional placements of workers on RWD and other government projects will be comparatively few until such time as the new work relief program is set in motion E. D. Reese supervisor, announced. In the meantime, however, the local employment office is continuing its efforts in placing workers in private employment.

Major Test For Earle's Regime

Election Of State Senator In Montgomery County Today Significant

SEE REFLECTION OF SENTIMENT IN STATE

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 9.—Both Democratic and Republican leaders regard the April 9 special legislative elections in Montgomery county, long a G. O. P. stronghold, as the major test of Gov. George H. Earle's "new deal" administration.

From both sides the Montgomery county balloting, primarily to choose a successor to the late Sen. James S. Boyd, was considered a more positive barometer of public opinion than the recent special election in Pike county which the Republicans won by the slender margin of 39 votes. Although Republicans exulted, Democrats pointed out the smallness of the county and the importance of local issues involved beclouded the election's effect as a test of the popularity of the Earle administration.

"What you do here on April 9 will be taken as a reflection on public sentiment in the state at large," M. Harvey Taylor, Republican state chairman, has told the voters in Montgomery county.

That the Democrats look upon the Montgomery election with virtually the same opinion may be evidenced by the fact that Governor Earle himself has headed the galaxy of high administration officials who have been pleading the "new deal" cause there.

Governor Earle, Attorney General Charles J. Margiotti, Secretary of Revenue H. Edgar Barnes and other Democratic bigwigs have asserted a victory in Montgomery is imperative to show the state that the voters at large are behind the executive's 22-point $203,000,000 tax program.

Sarazen Wins Playoff Match At Augusta, Ga.

Craig Wood Falters And Gene Sarazen Plays Steadily To Win

By ROBERT G. NIXON
International News Service Sports Writer

AUGUSTA, Ga., April 9.—The iron bulldog grabbed hold of par, and he wouldn't let go until the sun went down.

He grabbed it and he shook it as a terrier wears down its prey, and it was ragged and tattered old man par that staggered off to the clubhouse when the day was done.

They came up to the last green, the stocky, sun-browned Italian, Gene Sarazen, who took the British and American open championships in 1932, the only one besides the incomparable Bobby Jones who has done so, and the tall, blond giant, Craig Wood, they sank par fours, and the masters' crown was Gene's, but it had been his for many many holes, though the thing had to be played through to the end. Sarazen won the 36-hole match by five strokes.

Sarazen Unbeatable

Gene turned on the heat yesterday and it sizzled the deal, N. J., pro. He walked with par in as phenomental an exhibition as the game has seen. It looked easy and Gene didn't seem to be half trying.

Gene was out in even par 36 on the morning round. He grabbed two birdies, and he went over par for a single stroke on two holes, but it brought him a par 46. He birdied three on the tenth and then the iron bulldog set his teeth in par and he held on with the tenacity of the canine for 16 more consecutive holes neither above nor below the line a single hole. He took a five on the par four 35th on a short missed putt and then he parred the last hole. He finished the morning 18 in 71 and 73 for the afternoon and it gave him the par total of 144.

Wood went out in even 36's on the first nine but faltered, his putts simply wouldn't go home, and Gene finished the first 18 with his subpar 71 and four strokes in the lead.

Wood Rallies

Going out in the afternoon, Gene was even par all the way and took the turn in 36, to go into an eight stroke lead over Wood, whose game went to pieces and who took 40. Wood bucked down and stroked through the final nine in 34, two under par, to cut the lead by three strokes, while Sarazen, playing easily and shooting for par, took a 37, but the comeback was belated and it was futile.

Sarazen went the double round in 71-73—144, even par. Wood carded 75-74—149.

DETROIT TIGERS ARE UNDER WRAPS

(International News Service)

COLUMBIA, S. C., April 9.—The Cincinnati Reds and the Detroit Tigers were to move their series to Florence today after weather unfavorable to the American league champions caused cancellation of the game yesterday. Manager Charley Dressen literally begged the Tigers to play yesterday, he said, but Manager Mickey Cochrane said the weather was too cold for his pitchers.

CHICAGO CUBS TRIM YANKEES

(International News Service)

NASHVILLE, Tenn., April 9.—The New York Yankees brought themselves here today for a canter with the local Volunteers. They were visibly smarting from the shutout the Chicago Cubs handed them yesterday. The score was 5 to 0, the first time this year the Yanks have not scored.

Barney Ross To Battle Woods In Seattle Tonight

(International News Service)

SEATTLE, Wash., April 9.—Barney Ross, lightweight and junior welterweight champion of the world, and Henry Woods, Yakima negro challenger for Ross' junior welter title, today were all set for their 12-round fight here tonight.

Ross, although confident, realizes the Yakima negro is no pushover. Although Woods is practically unknown out of the Pacific northwest, wise railbirds have agreed he will give Ross a stiff battle. Among those railbirds is Jimmy McLarnin, welterweight champion, who may meet Ross in New York this summer.

While even the staunchest supporters of Woods do not expect him to take the Chicago king's measure, they do expect a hard fight. The negro's punching abilities have been well illustrated in previous bouts.

Niagara Falls Bowlers Lead

(International News Service)

SYRACUSE, N. Y., April 9—Five Niagara Falls bowlers today had rolled themselves into the lead in the five-man events standings, and the probable world's bowling championship of the 1935 American Bowling Congress tournament. They knocked down a total of 3,029 pins when they bowled on the late squad here last night.

The team turned in games of 994, 980 and 1,055 to nose out the Tivoli Brewers of Detroit by five pins.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Gene Sarazen mowed down Craig Wood in a play-off match for the top prize of $1,500 in the Augusta, Ga., National Golf club's second annual invitation meet yesterday. The former British and American open champion defeated Wood by five strokes in a 35 hole contest that was never in doubt after the first dozen holes had been negotiated. Sarazen made the double round in 71-73-144, even par while Wood turned in a card of 75-74-149.

George T. Dunlap, Jr., the former national champion, was carried to the thirty eighth green at Pinehurst yesterday by Johnny Johnson of Lumberson, N. C. before capturing the North and South amateur golf title for the fourth time. On the final hole Johnson caught a trap with his second and had to take a six while Dunlap played a par four and won the match.

Abe Berenbaum, New York, won from Mark Schlude, St. Louis, in the men's singles title in the national table tennis tournament, at Chicago yesterday. The scores in the final matches were 21-19, 13-21-16, 13-21 and 21-9. Paired with Ed Silverglade, Trenton, Berenbaum captured the men's doubles from Richard Tindall, St. Louis and Coleman Clark, Chicago by scores of 13-21, 21-15, 21-9 and 21-8.

Jimmy McLarnin, welterweight champion, gave Barney Ross, lightweight and junior welterweight champion a tip to "guard your chin, you're up against a good boy" today. Barney is to fight Henry Woods in a 12 round bout tonight at Seattle....Alabama Kid beat Tiger Hairston at Dayton in a middleweight, eight round bout last night at Dayton, O.

Promoter Offers Baer $250,000 To Battle Schmeling

German Promoter Is Very Anxious To Cast Schmeling And Baer Into Ring

By HYPE IGOE
International News Service Sports Writer.

NEW YORK, April 9.—Charley Harvey returned to New York today on the Ile De France and our Charles Augustus is supposed to be "loaded for Baer".

Representing Walter Rothenberg, the German promoter, Charley is to present all the terms, the convincers, the bait to be offered Max Baer for a championship bout with Max Schmeling. Charley went away with Steve Hamas and he's bringing him back, sadder if not wiser.

Stock Soars.

Schmeling's stock went soaring to the heavens because of the knockout of Steve. Rothenberg is the man who promoted the bout guaranteeing Hamas $25,000 flat and they got their money.

Rothenberg prevailed upon Harvey to act as his agent in this country with a view to bringing Baer to either London or Hamburg for a battle with Schmeling for the world's title.

It is said that Harvey brings an offer of $250,000 for Baer. This offer and Ancil Hoffman's inclination to flirt wtih the rich guarantee have thrown Madison Square Garden into a canipshun fit.

He is being listed as "O'Grodowski" in the Red Bird lineups but that name, shortened to "O'Grady," would be much easier to write and would likewise prove a better substitute for Bruiser's correct name if one must be had.

Basketball Pivot Play Is Changed

There is considerable discussion today in New Castle among the basketball players as to the new drastic changes that have been placed into the rule books for 1936 by the national basketball rules committee. The most drastic change is the post pivot play.

The pivot play has long been a bone of contention among the basketball teams. Under the new rules the pivot player must get rid of the ball in three seconds time while in the free throw line. This prevents a team from using the tallest man on the team from standing in one spot and either shooting or passing to a fast cutting player.

Another rule calls for a ball out-of-bounds after a successful free throw by the team that has been scored upon, instead of a jump ball at center.

The other rule changes are made to prevent crowding on the basketball court.

To reduce crowding, the committee adopted the following rules:

1. On jump balls it is illegal for a player to step on or across the diameter of the jumping circle after the ball is tossed up or before tapped. The penalty for violation of the rule shall be out of bounds and for repeated infractions, a technical foul.

2. Whenever a jump ball takes place at the free throw line, all players, except the jumpers, must remain outside of the free throw circle, the present arc to be extended by a broken arc into a complete circle. The penalty for violation is out of bounds.

3. The officials will have more authority to keep players away from jump balls.

Pugh Winner In N. C. Rifle Shoot

The results of the shoot: Pugh, 187; L. Hill, 182; Allen, 178; Black, 173; Schell, 173; H. Gardner, 172; Seward, 165; Waddington, 163; D. Gardner, 153; McBride, 152; Cramer, 148; D. Hill, 110.

Six Soft Ball Fields In Use

Six soft ball fields will be utilized this year by the New Castle Soft Ball Association, it was announced today. The following fields are being put into shape, Radiator, Lehigh, B. & O., Boroline, Gaston Park, and Centennial. It is hoped that the soft ball league can get started by the first week in May, possibly on the sixth.

Dr. H. H. Halley Speaks On "The Purpose Of Life" At Union Service

ELLWOOD CITY, April 9.—A large audience was present last night at the opening of the second and closing week of the meeting being conducted by Dr. Halley in the United Presbyterian church. This meeting, under the direction of the Ministerial Association of Ellwood City, has been very favorably received by Bible-loving Christians of all denominations.

Mr. Halley took as his subject last night "The Purpose of Christ". In his introduction he showed very clearly that Christ came not to establish a political or temporal kingdom, but a spiritual kingdom within the heart and life of the individual resulting in the transformation of the individual. This is accomplished not with force, but by love. The center of the Bible, said Mr. Halley, is Christ, and the very heart of the life of Christ is the resurrection. This historical fact makes possible the presence of Christ today in a mystical manner with the believer and thus the purpose of Christ is wrought out. The lecture closed with a recital of the resurrection story as given by the various writers of Scripture.

The Rex. Schillinger, pastor of the Christian Missionary Alliance, presided.

School Elimination Contests For Six Counties Here This Week

Schools Of Six Counties Share Contests Here

Two Thousand Student Musicians And Orators Will Compete

VISITORS COMING FRIDAY, SATURDAY

Mercer, Butler, Erie, Crawford, Venango And Lawrence Counties In Event

Schools of six Northwestern Pennsylvania counties — Lawrence, Mercer, Butler, Erie, Crawford and Venango—will be represented in the estimated host of 2,000 student musicians and student orators which will assemble in New Castle on Friday and Saturday, April 12 and 13, for the Northwestern Pennsylvania sectional elimination of the annual state-wide contest sponsored by the Pennsylvania Music and Forensic League.

From the atmosphere created by the stir over advance preparations however, it could be safely predicted that New Castle will maintain the high record as a contest city which she established when the sectional contestants gathered here several years ago.

On Friday and Saturday, various schools of the city and one church will be the scene of lively competition in six major forensic events and 45 different music eliminations.

Events At Many Schools

Schools in which the various events will take place will be Senior high, Ben Franklin junior high, Arthur McGill and the Highland U. P. church.

Supervising Principal H. M. B. Lehn of Grove City's schools will direct the two-day events in his capacity as chairman of the Northwestern Pennsylvania Forensic and Music League. Carrol D. Kearns, Greenville music supervisor, formerly of New Castle, is secretary of the league and Prof. Joseph F. Replogle, director of instrumental music in the New Castle schools, is treasurer.

Supervising at first hand the preliminary work for the week's com-

PA NEWC OBSERVES

Central firemen are giving the Central station its annual spring housecleaning. The walls are being washed down in the downstairs section, and the place given a thorough going over in general.

Traffic had to slow up and detour around a kiddy-car parked on one of the busy highways!

Although the benefits derived from the required automobile inspection are readily admitted, more and more motorists are remarking that inspection once a year instead of twice would be sufficient.

Tourists are beginning to sprout up everywhere. Pa Newc saw a car from Texas, one from Arizona and one from Florida parked on North Mercer street yesterday. Bet those three parties wished they had delayed their start, when they saw how snow could fall in April.

Trailer trouble keeps lots of truck drivers busy. One of the common maladies is the involuntary detachment of huge trailer from truck. This happened at the Croton avenue end of the North street bridge

DOCTOR HELD IN WOMAN HUNT

Police investigators are delving into alleged secrets of Dr. H. E. Zimmerly's hospital farm at Mechanics Grove, Pa., in an effort to find some trace of Miss Gladys Lawson, inset, of Calvert, Md., who disappeared after the doctor assertedly performed an operation on the girl. Dr. Zimmerly, shown leaving a police car in Lancaster, Pa., following his arraignment, has been charged with performing an improper operation. Authorities are examining bones found in an ash heap near the farm to determine whether they are those of the missing woman.

Blame Driver In Fatal Crash

Coroner's Jury Holds Accident, Fatal To Mrs. Julia Stewart, Was Preventable

INQUEST IS HELD IN EWING'S OFFICE

After hearing the evidence Monday afternoon relative to the collision in which Mrs. Julia Stewart of Shenango township received fatal injuries on March 8, a coroner's jury brought in a verdict in which they stated that the fatal crash could have been avoided by the exercise of proper precaution on the part of George Demenco, driver of the automobile which crashed into the machine driven by W. Clyde Smith, in which Mrs. Stewart was a passenger. The inquest was held in Alderman Ewing's office before Coroner Orville Potter.

Mrs. Stewart died on March 25,

Republican Bills Killed In House

Committee Kills Income Tax And Sales Tax Measures

(International News Service)

HARRISBURG, April 9—Republican income and sales tax bills were killed today by the house Democratic ways and means committee.

The committee reported negatively on bills of Rep. Clinton A. Sowers, Philadelphia, for a flat tax on incomes, and Rep. James Rooney, Allegheny, for a three per cent sales tax. Sowers last night sought to force his bills from committee, but withdrew his motion when Rep. Frank W. Ruth, Berks, chairman, announced the committee would consider the measures today.

The Eroe bill imposing a tax on ten cents a ton on all coal, sand and gravel removed from streams was released from committee and will be on the calendar tomorrow. Also released was the Kane bill appropriating $10,000 for the house committee investigating transportation rates on anthracite coal.

Hunt For Body Of Woman Being Resumed Today

Officials Convinced That Ashes In Doctor's Backyard Are Those Of Animal

(International News Service)

LANCASTER, Pa., April 9.—Convinced that bones found in an ash heap at the home of Dr. H. E. Zimmerly were those of an animal, police today began a systematic search of the elderly physician's farm for the body of Mrs. Gladys Lawson, 29, believed to have died after undergoing an illegal operation.

Investigators theorized that the body was not dissected as testified by the physician's hired man, Richard Parker, held on a narcotic charge, but that it probably will be found buried in a field.

Held In Jail.

Dr. Zimmerly was held in jail in default of $10,000 bail on charges of performing illegal operations and possession of narcotics. State police stressed that even if the body was found the charge against Dr. Zimmerly would remain that of performing an illegal operation.

Other than admitting he performed an improper operation upon the missing woman, Dr. Zimmerly insisted he had driven her to Lancaster and did not know where she had gone.

Two Persons Return $146.30 Relief Funds

"Conscience Returns" Are Made To Lawrence County Relief Offices

Two "conscience returns" were made to the Lawrence county emergency relief administration today, totalling $146.30. The money represented relief checks which had been taken by the two people involved, but which they returned, feeling that they had taken money that they were not entitled to.

The first return was from a New Castle case. A man walked into the relief office and said: "I have been accepting relief which I can get along without. My conscience hurts me and I am returning $106.20." He turned it over in cash.

By a coincidence another man came in from Bessemer a little later and laid down $40.10 which he said he had received when he had means of his own. The money goes back into the general relief fund.

"These cases are people who have realized their error in accepting relief," said Mr. Moorhead. "There are other cases where people have accepted relief when they do not rate it. This is plain chiseling and we are doing everything we can to bring them to time."

Many Merchants Join Suburban Day Plans

New Castle's first Suburban Day, the first of a six monthly plan of bargain days will be held Wednesday, April 10, with over forty merchants of the city co-operating. Sponsored by the New Castle News the plan has met with the favor of the merchants and will undoubtedly meet with the approval of the thrifty buyers.

The plan of Suburban Day, is one easily understood. Each of the forty odd merchants who is co-operating in the movement will hold a Suburban Day sale on the second Wednesday of each month. On that day the merchant will offer his quality merchandise at reduced prices, these prices to be in effect for that day only.

Each store co-operating will be recognized by an official Suburban Day sign and the buyer may be sure that every store displaying the sign has genuine bargains to offer on Suburban Day.

There is no restriction upon the merchant's offerings for Suburban Day. He can and probably will offer low priced articles and his higher priced merchandise but all of them at especially reduced prices for the day.

Wednesday is the first of the Suburban Day. Shoppers will do well to get down early and see for themselves the worth while offerings that are being made by the merchants who are a part of Suburban Day.

Outlined by Foreign Secretary Sir John Simon in his first full and comprehensive report on his recent conversations with Chancellor Hitler in Berlin, the demands were as follows:

1—An army of 550,000 men.
2—A navy of 405,530 tons.
3—Right to construct and possess all types of arms possessed by other countries.
4—Return to the League of Nations only if Germany's status as an "inferior" is wiped out—with the Reich's present lack of colonies an example of inferiority.
5—Aerial parity with Great Britain and France.

VIOLENT STORMS STRIKE EAST AND WEST COASTS

(International News Service)

Death rode the whirlwind today as gales whipped coastal boundaries of the nation, sounding a bizarre note by the grounding of airplanes because of inland dust storms while men fought for their lives aboard a sinking ship in the icy Atlantic.

The new disasters struck on the heels of spring tornadoes which spiraled through the south over the week-end, with 29 persons believed to have perished and untold property damage inflicted in Louisiana and Mississippi.

Nature's latest freak attack hit western and eastern seaboards alike. From the lush Sacramento valley in California came reports of a death toll ranging from 9 to 14 persons when a Southern Pacific freight train collided with a motor-railway car of a second gang which had been repairing damage caused by the worst California storm in years. Eight other persons were known to be dead in swollen rivers and traf-

State Senate Tax Program Being Shaped

Republican Majority Appears To Be Formulating Tax Deadlock Suggestion

SENATORS DISCUSS SUBSTITUTE PLAN

Over Week-End Conference On Compromise With Governor Is Likely

By G. EVERETT DOYING
International News Service Staff Correspondent

HARRISBURG, April 9.—The Republican senate majority today appeared to be swinging behind an alternative program of increased budget estimates of state income and sharply curtailed relief expenditures as a solution to the deadlock over relief and taxes.

And in the meantime as the deadlock for discontinuance of federal allocations next week neared, an abortive Republican house minority plan designed to stave off the crisis until June 1 lay wrecked at the hands of the Democratic majority which declared the proposal unworkable.

A caucus of Republican senators was slated for today at which discussion of a substitute program for Gov. George H. Earle's $203,000,000 new taxation plan, bogged down in the upper chamber, where to be continued. No agreement was looked for today. Whether the unveiling will be tomorrow or next week was uncertain.

Senate Program To Be Known

One G. O. P. spokesman, however, ventures the prediction that the senate program would be known before the legislature quits for the week. This procedure, he intimated, would pave the way for compromise conferences with the administration over the week-end. Governor Earle standing pat on his taxation bills, has declared he cannot sit down with senate leaders until two divergent programs are up for discussion.

The tip off on the G. O. P. senate's attitude came in Senator G Mason Owlett's reply from the floor to Governor Earle's radio castigation of the upper chamber for failure to pass administration tax bills

Owlett quoted state treasurer Charles A. Waters' statement that "the estimate of income as contained in the budget now before the legislature to be realized from existing taxes is $20,000,000 below what may

Heavy Loss Of Life In Storm In California

Huge Property Damage Is Reported In Wake Of Terrific Storm

NINE IN SECTION CREW ARE KILLED

Damage In Central California Is Reported As Appalling

(BULLETIN)
(International News Service)

SAN FRANCISCO, April 9.—Heavy loss of life and millions of dollars in property damage lay today in the wake of the worst California storm in recent years.

Nine men in a Southern Pacific section crew were killed when their motor railway car crashed head-on with a gravel train. Three others in the crew were injured and another was reported dying.

The crew had been repairing a section of roadbed between Roseville and Marysville which had been washed out by the storm.

The terrific force of the collision splintered the light work car and catapaulted the men into a six-foot ravine where their mangled bodies were found.

Eight Others Dead

Eight other persons were definitely known to have lost their lives in swollen rivers and traffic accidents throughout the state. Another possible victim, Judge Gus Schuler, of Woodland, was missing. It was

Tornado Death Toll Reaches 31

Work Of Relief In Louisiana And Mississippi Is Being Pushed

(International News Service)

NATCHEZ, Miss., April 9.—The known death toll from a tornado which late Saturday and early Sunday lashed its way across a small portion of Louisiana and southwest Mississippi, today stood at 31 after two more victims of the storm had succumbed to their injuries.

Meanwhile the work of rehabilitation was being rushed. At Gloster, where Red Cross headquarters have been set up, nearly 500 refugees from the Gloster and Gillsburg sections are being fed and housed. Most of the homeless are being cared for in public buildings, while members of a nearby CCC camp aid in the reconstruction of their homes.

The Mississippi river today had given up the bodies of five of the nine persons drowned when the tornado overturned a large house boat six miles south of Lake Providence, La. The five bodies recovered were all negroes. Search for the bodies of the four white persons was being continued.

A little snow, a little rain, a little touch of sun, a gusty breeze, a bit of calm, another day is done. A warning smile from Mister Sol, then Boreas has his blow, and then the imps of Winter's chill bring on a touch of snow. Its April, folks, with all her whims, she never knows her mind, sometimes she's cruel, harsh and cold, sometimes she's warm and kind. But never is she stabilized, for that is April's way, a whimsical, bewildering lass, its forty-four today.
